

Valley Residents Involved In Crash

SUNSET VALLEY, July 13—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hintz and son, Helmut, who left early Saturday morning on a trip to the Moses lake area, suffered a mishap while en route. Their pick-up completely overturned on the winding road near Dayton, Washington about 11 o'clock that morning. Mrs. Hintz stayed overnight in the Dayton hospital, but all were able to return by bus Sunday evening, although suffering from bruises. The pickup will require a new body.

Gabriel Astoreca who has been suffering from a severe case of arthritis in his hip and leg, is improving. His sister, Mrs. Harold Lenon and son, Jimmie, of Twin Falls have been with Astoreca for over a week. Friends and neighbors gathered and put up his baled hay.

Astoreca's sister, Miss Carmen Astoreca, arrived Saturday by plane from Washington, D. C., where she is employed in the Newhouse office building as a beautician for congressmen's wives.

Mrs. Lenon and son returned to Twin Falls Sunday to join her husband on a long-planned trip east.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenon will leave by plane Wednesday for Chicago, purchase a new automobile and drive it home. Carmen plans on staying with her brother until the Lenons' return.

Wallace Rataeyk is doing the irrigating for Astoreca and Ike Mitchell is now helping with the farm work.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Garner were hosts at their home at a Fourth of July dinner for Mr. and Mrs. True Garner of Emmett, Mr. and Mrs. James Platte of Wilson Lake, Utah, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Garner of Emmett, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Garner, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garner and family.

The news of Ira Garner's drowning in the Payette river was delivered at the dinner. Ira, son of Mr. and Mrs. True Garner and related to all present, lost his life after saving the life a neighbor's boy. Valley residents recall that Mr. and Mrs. Ira Garner and family lived in Sunset valley for a year on the Black farm. He was employed by the B & M company in Caldwell. All week long the Garners have searched the river with the B & M men for Ira's body.
