

Apple Valley PTA Festival Success

APPLE VALLEY, Aug. 24—The P. T. A. festival held Thursday evening attracted a good-sized crowd, who thoroughly enjoyed themselves the whole evening.

An added attraction this year was the beautiful flower and handwork exhibit in the school lunch room. Mrs. Walter Freeman received a blue ribbon on her basket of flowers and tied with Mrs. King on second and third prize in the handwork division. Mrs. Freeman's entry was a crocheted tablecloth. Mrs. Waldo Smalley took the blue ribbon with a hand-painted child's bedspread. Second and third place winners in the flower division were Mrs. Zim-dars and Mr. Mann.

In the cake judging, Mrs. Ruth Fritts won first place and Mrs. Grace Butcher, second. Frank Plag-man won the beautiful chenille bedspread offered as a door prize and Mrs. Dwight Seward held the lucky ticket for the quilt made by the ladies of the Just Neighbors club. Mrs. Francis Arnold guessed closest to the number of marbles in a jar and received a box of candy.

Music for the evening was furnished by the "Fifty Five" of Parma. After all bills were paid, the P. T. A. realized a little over $150 to help on the hot lunch program this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Dyer of Onalaska, California and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dyer and children of Notus were Friday evening supper guests in the Vincent Farrell home. Dwight Seward made a business trip to Jerome Thursday of last week.

Boston home, visiting with the guests and enjoying the colored motion pictures that Bill Boston had taken at the Boy Scout jamboree in Washington, D. C. Later refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Conley Wilson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Murray and baby of Parma, and Nathaniel Botner motored to McCall Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Caldwell.

Several of the boys in the community have been either called to the army or have been called for their physicals. Lester Norland went for his physical last week. Bob Smalley had his summons to appear Monday and George Otani has been back in the service for a couple of weeks, as he was in the reserves.

LaVerne Ferguson, who is employed on construction work near Im-naha, Oregon, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ferguson.

Several from the community attended the Nebraska picnic in Caldwell Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fritts won an all-wool blanket for being the newest married couple attending.
