

Two Men Honored In Sunset Valley

SUNSET VALLEY, Aug. 31—Jesse Asumendi, son of Frank Asumendi, was honored guest at a large community party held Sunday on the Lorensen lawn. Sixty-two Sunset valley friends and neighbors brought their dinners for the occasion. A piece of luggage was presented by the group to Asumendi, who will leave in September to attend the University of Oregon, where he will major in physical education. As a 1950 Adrian high school graduate, he received the Lion's Club personal trophy awarded the most outstanding football player, the gold-en-gloves from Vale for boxing, the rotating award as the most valuable player on the team, and upon graduation, the boys athletic medal as top sportsman. Jesse also was president of the PFA, the letterman's club, and the senior class. Gabriel Astoreca was completely surprised Tuesday evening when upon arriving at the Lorensen home, he called out, "Happy Birthday, Gabe." Arrangements for the surprise birthday party had been made by Miss Carmen Astoreca of Washington, D. C., who has been visiting her brother, and by Mrs. Grover Cooper and Mrs. Kenneth Lorensen. Following a picnic supper on the lawn, Astoreca opened his many gifts, including a complete living room suite.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nishitani Monday were Hiromu Nishitani of Seattle and Sam Akichika of Homedale, who had been visiting in Seattle. Hiromu is Thomas Nishitani's older brother. Monday evening, Mrs. Thomas Nishitani and Mrs. Roy Hirai drove to Ontario to attend the monthly meeting of the Matrons club at the oriental cafe. Mrs. B. Tanaka gave an interesting demonstration of flower arrangement, and Mrs. Nishitani assisted on the refreshment committee.

Arriving the same evening at the Nishitani home were Art Abe and Jimmie Nishitani, both of Seattle. They are en route to Yellowstone National park. Jimmie is in charge of the University of Washington greenhouses, where much experimental work is being done, and Art is employed by the civil aeronautics administration. They continued on their trip Wednesday.

A family get-together was quickly arranged for Monday evening at the Leo Chard home, when Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fox of Lucas, Kansas, en route to Seattle were overnight guests. Fox, a naval reserve, who had finished college, had been notified to transfer to Seattle for two months training. Guests present for the evening included the following families: Ewen Chard, Elver Nielsen, Doyn Price of Ontario, Kenneth and Marioln Chard, and Earl Chard.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hobson attended the Nazarene series of camp meeting in Nampa this past week.

Attending the Boise State fair were Mr. and Mrs. James Langley and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Refett.

The Kenneth Lorensen lawn will be the gathering place and scene of another Nebraska picnic. The date set is Sunday, September 3. All Nebraskans are invited to arrange picnic dinner and attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Orr and family were Sunday visitors at the home of M. A. Rataeyk. Orr, a nephew of Mr. Rataeyk, formerly lived in Salt Lake City, but is now living in Boise.

Overnight guests Friday at the W. L. Chapin home were Mr. and Mrs. John Williams of Portland. The two families were former neighbors in Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson were Sunday dinner guests at the Charles Kauffman home in Homedale.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Planagan and son, Clifford, and Frank Planagan, all of Bear Creek, Wisconsin, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Planagan of Yakima arrived Thursday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Planagan. The three Planagan brothers, Frank, Jim and E. J., with Sid and his cousin, Clifford, spent Friday fishing at the dam. The houseguests left Saturday to attend the round-up at Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Roswell spent Friday visiting at the H. A. Wilson home.

Miss Clarice Notheis and Mrs. M. A. Rataeyk left Sunday for Portland, where each will visit their relatives for a week or 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dimmick arrived home Monday evening from a 10-day pack trip into the Chamberlain basin area near Stibnite, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nishitani and son, David, were dinner guests at the George Hashitani home in Newell heights Saturday.

A seven-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wooley of Parma Wednesday. Mrs. Wooley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Gardner.

A son was born Thursday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gilbert. The new boy weighed six pounds, 14 ounces. Mrs. Gilbert is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dodson, Sharon Query and Kenneth Ditty left Thursday to go to the Unity area for coral poles. They expected to return the first of the week.

Carrot pulling is in full swing in the valley. Claude Wilson has finished pulling. Clarence and Buck Reed and Jim Robb are working on their carrots while others are planning on harvesting the first of the week.

Pullets are laying now. Don Strickland has housed his 500 and Dimmick housed 200 this month.

Neil and Larry Dimmick are now working on a trench silo which is to be 100 feet long, 15 feet across at the top and eight feet wide at the bottom.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanson of Everett, Washington were houseguests at the Robb Thompson home several days this week. Mrs. Hanson is the niece of Mrs. Bessie Eldum, and a cousin of both Paul and Herbert Bergam. The visitors and all the families enjoyed dinner one day with Herbert and his family, and on another day with Paul Bergam family. Leaving Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Hanson continued on to Portland and Tacoma for a visit.

Patricia Eachus and Bonita Langlois of Ridgeview were houseguests of Fern Price for several days this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Newgen left early Friday morning for the west coast, taking two youngsters, who had spent the summer on the farm, to their homes. Mrs. Newgen's niece, Elaine Austin, returned to her home at Longview, Washington and young Chuck to his home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ditty are residing in Boise for a period of three months while he is attending Buntins' mechanical school in that city. Their daughter, Charlotte, is visiting at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Leota Ditty.

Linda Ransom joined her sister, Miss Doris Ransom of Boise and both went by plane to visit their mother in New Mexico. Mrs. Marie C. Black planned on visiting at the Fred Guthrie home in Boise.

Jack Refett of John Day spent Sunday at the home of his parents. Jack is district repair manager for caterpillar tractors.

Sunday guests at the Chester Bowns' home included Mr. and Mrs. Loren Stone, Kay Leon, Mike and Diane Stone, and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson, all of Slatterville, Utah. Sunset auxiliary will meet September 7 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Nishitani.

Reverend and Mrs. Herbert Dodson and family left last Thursday for Austin, Corner, near Rainier, Oregon, where Dodson will be pastor of a new church. The family had visited for some time at the home of Rev. Joe Dodson.

Supper guests at the home of Larry Dimmick Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marston of Wilder.

Mrs. Harold Tayer of Yakima, was a houseguest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Larry Dimmick, several days this week. Mrs. Tayer nee Delma Ward had been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Earl Larson in Idaho the previous 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Ekanger and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fyllingness were Sunday guests at the Lew McCoy home near Ironside Sunday.

Ira Price, Jr. spent several days this week visiting at the Kenneth Price home near Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Chapin made a trip to Madras Tuesday, taking with them a load of household articles belonging to their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Crow. Mr. and Mrs. Crow had just moved into a newly-erected duplex and were settling their belongings preparatory to opening of the school term, as both are teachers in the Madras school.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapin visited with many of the former Sunset residents who have moved to Madras. On Wednesday evening the Crow home was the scene of a gathering of friends including the Roy Warren, Lloyd Landreth and Burrell Landreth families.

Dennis Reed was honored at a surprise birthday party given for him Wednesday afternoon. Games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Esterbrook of Alnsworth, Nebraska are visiting in Homedale at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Zillig.

Both families visited at the Kenneth Lorensen home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James Chadd and daughter were dinner guests Sunday at the Ed Steiner home in Ontario.
