Auxiliary Will Spend $2000 For Hospital Supplies

At the regular meeting of the Malheur Memorial Hospital auxiliary held at the parish hall Monday afternoon, the members of the group expressed their warm appreciation of the untiring efforts of their president, Mrs. Wesley Browne, in the summer's work of the auxiliary. Mrs. Browne stated to the group that their efforts would be continually needed as the hospital begins operations and continues to operate.

She announced the receipt of $5 from the Mary and Martha group of the Adrian United Presbyterian church and $7.50 from the Out-Our-Way club, as well as 11 dozen tea towels from the Pioneer club of Newell Heights.

During the business meeting several important items of business were discussed including the fall auction sale to be held October 14 with Mrs. Virgil McGee and Mrs. Frank Morgan as chairmen.

The auxiliary members voted to contribute $2000 of their funds for the purchase of surgical supplies for the hospital.

Mrs. Bernard Eastman, reported that auxiliary sponsored concert will be held December 5, featuring the Boise Elks Glee-men. Mrs. Eastman, chairman of the nurse's scholarship committee, presented Miss Kay Peterson, who told of the plans of the nurse's scholarship committee composed of representatives of the chamber of commerce, the Eagles lodge and the Lion's club. The auxiliary voted to also contribute a nurse's scholarship.

Mrs. Carlos Buchner was appointed chairman of a committee to collect canned goods for the hospital. The date of the collection is to be announced.

Mrs. Browne stated that there was still need at the hospital for gallon and 1/2 gallon jars, such as vinegar or purex jars; of 16 ounce bottles, and glass jars such as Skipper peanut butter jars, and one gallon tin cans.

Republican Women Meet—Members of the republican women's group met in Ontario Tuesday last week for a luncheon at the Moore hotel to hear Mrs. Freda Peterson of Dallas and Mrs. George Gerlinger of Portland discuss the measures and issues of the coming election. Mrs. Peterson also told of the recent conference of the state republican committee members that she had attended in Utah. Members from Adrian, Nyssa, Vale and Ontario attended the meeting in Ontario.
