BY LEW HERRIMAN

A Russian radio broadcast that was picked up by U. S. listeners in Berlin gives a pretty sad picture of life in the U. S. According to the Soviet announcer, criminals "are the heroes of today's America." Just wait till Hopalong Cassidy and Roy Rogers hear about that! The Muscovite M. C. also shed a tear for poor American girls who go to depraved amusement parks and marry industrialism. Obviously that's a-bout the worst thing that could happen to a girl. It would take her out of the mines or the steel mills and force her to enjoy a comfortable life. What horrible torture! In Long Beach, Calif., a burglar broke into a Lonely Hearts Club and stole a file listing the names, qualifications and addresses of over 100 unmarried women. Optimist! Optimism won't get you where you're going if you're driving around in a worn-out old car. Don't trust to luck... trust to one of our well-reconditioned used cars.
