

First Christmas Party Is Reviewed

BIG BEND, Dec. 14—The Wade P. T. A. met Friday, December 8 with Mrs. Harvey Bennett. Twenty-two members and two visitors were present. Mrs. John Thompson conducted the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Leroy Bennett, who has been ill. Mrs. Duane Goodenow acted as secretary. Plans were made for Christmas. The P. T. A. presented the school with a five-tube General Electric radio. Mrs. E. H. Brumbach consented to relate the Bend's first Christmas, which was celebrated in 1905. She said the district was organized that year with Mrs. Pillsbury, Harvey Hatch and E. H. Brumbach as the first directors. The district borrowed $1000 to build a one-room school. Rose Lent was the first teacher. The first Christmas tree was a large sagebrush, decorated with home-made decorations. The treats were home-made candies. Mrs. Bennett, hostess and Mrs. John Auker, assistant hostess, served refreshments. The home extension unit met Monday with Mrs. Stanton. George Elfers of Boise Junior college left Thursday with other junior college students for Pasadena to play in the band.

Mrs. John Thompson and Helen Hatch attended the home extension meeting Thursday in Ontario. They learned how to make lamp shades. Loretta Van De Water went to Boise Friday with Beth Benson. Mrs. E. H. Brumbach returned Sunday from Rupert, Idaho, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. John Bishop and family.

Mrs. Mary Goodenow and Mrs. John Packwood went to Caldwell Thursday to purchase a radio for the school. Ezra Brumbach was a business visitor in Boise last Monday. Arthur Hally left Tuesday for Los Angeles to visit his sister.
