

To Klamath Falls—
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Foster, accompanied by their son, Tom, will leave Friday for Klamath Falls to spend the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Wilson and family.

Social Notes

CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY
Mrs. Hilda Tensen entertained the members of the Kingman Colony Book club at their annual Christmas party Saturday afternoon. The program consisted of the singing of carols and two Christmas stories, "The Littlest Shepherd" and "The Littlest Angel", read by Mrs. Dennis Patch. Following the gift exchange attractive holiday refreshments were served by the hostess. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Grant Rinehart and Mrs. Dick Tensen.

CIRCLE MEETS

The Mary and Martha circle of the Methodist W. S. C. S. met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Foster. During the business meeting plans were made for Christmas baskets to be filled for needy families under the chairmanship of Mrs. R. M. Cochran, and for two missionary boxes to be sent to Japan. Mrs. Anna Johnson was in charge of the program on "Our Responsibilities to the Giver of Gifts". Mrs. Henry Hartley led the devotional period. A sacrificial Christmas offering was given by the members of the group. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Harlan Kager.

GIFTS GIVEN TO VETERANS
The Sunset auxiliary members met Monday afternoon at the Delbert Garner home to prepare Christmas gifts for the veterans in the Boise veterans hospital. One hundred and fifty cellophane packages were filled with home-made cookies and gaily decorated for the veterans. The gifts were delivered at the hospital Tuesday. The small group of farm women in Sunset valley have each year prepared gifts for the veterans to re-assure them that they are not forgotten.

GIRLS MEET

The Seven Sewing Sisters 4-H club led by Mrs. Charles Harris met Wednesday, December 13 in the Adrian grade school building. During a Christmas party refreshments were served. After the party, the girls held a business meeting and worked on their sewing garments. They decided to meet January 4 at the Bob Webster home in Adrian.
