LOCAL MAN WEDS
Ruby Wageman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wageman of Nampa was married to Ronald Haney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Haney of Nyssa route 1 in the Seventh Day Adventist church in Nampa November 20. The candlelight ceremony was performed by Elder Hempel.

Darlene Haney was maid of honor, Shirley Stewart, bridesmaid; Evelou Haney and Maren Guetenberg, candle-lighters; Donald Haney, groom's man; Bud Smith, usher, and Mrs. Donald Haney, usherette. The bride wore a white satin gown with fingertip veil.

A reception was held in the Park house in Nampa.
Mr. Haney, who attended school at Nyssa and Adrian, is engaged in farming near New Plymouth. Mrs. Haney attended Gem State academy at Caldwell.

LOCAL GIRL WEDS
Miss Genevieve Hipp of Nyssa and Charles Miller of Ogden, Utah were joined in wedlock Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. Don Campbell officiated.
Mrs. Miller was born in Nyssa and attended school here, graduating in 1946. Mr. Miller is employed by the Amalgamated Sugar company. He has been employed in the Nyssa plant for the past two years and has been transferred to Seattle, where they will make their home.
Before they left for Seattle a chicken dinner was served for their friends and families at the Morocco club Saturday night in honor of the couple.

CHRISTMAS PARTY GIVEN
Members of the M. Y. F. of the Methodist church met in the church parlors last Wednesday evening for a Christmas party. Each member was requested to take a bell to the party. Games were enjoyed under the direction of Ned Snider, and following a candlelight carol service, refreshments were served.

HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTY
The Needle Bells 4-H club held a Christmas party December 18 at the home of Mrs. M. Myers. The girls engaged in a treasure hunt to find their presents in a gift exchange and then played Christmas games. Refreshments were served. The same club met at the home of Mrs. Myers December 11. Lorena Bolitho and Sally Lawrence were flag leaders and serving hostesses, and also played a clarinet duet, "Pacific Grandeur".

ENTERTAINS AT PARTY
Mary Terhune entertained at a Christmas party at her home Saturday night, December 16. The girl friends of Miss Terhune attending the party remained at the Terhune home overnight and attended Sunday school at the Christian church Sunday.

STORK SHOWER HELD
Mrs. Gish Amano and Mrs. Mas Yano of Weiser were honored guests at a pink and blue party Monday afternoon at the Thomas Watanabe home in Ontario. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Thomas Nishitani of Sunset valley, Mrs. Abe Saito and Mrs. Howard Fujii, both of Weiser, and Mrs. Thomas Watanabe of Ontario.
A Yuletide arrangement of candles, madonna and miniature Christ child graced the buffet, a mass of pink and white asters accented the center table, while on each of the other tables were chrysanthemums. Mrs. George Saito received high prize in recognizing the greatest number of comic characters in the funnies, while Mrs. Harry Morioka received high in the nursery puzzle games. After the opening of gifts, hostesses served a crab luncheon, with one of the desserts—a tiny diaper cookie fastened with a gold safety pin.

GIRL SCOUTS MEET
Mrs. Grant Rinehart's Girl Scout troop elected officers December 12. Elenore Medina was elected president; Barbara McPartland, treasurer and Carole Mink, secretary and reporter.
