

Program Given By Apple Valley Folk

APPLE VALLEY, Dec. 28—For once, Apple Valley residents were able to enjoy their children's Christmas program, and were impressed with the thought of how nice it would be if they had the room and facilities in their community to present programs such as the one presented Wednesday evening in the community hall in Parma.

Each room of the grade school, with the help of teachers and room mothers, held its Christmas party Friday afternoon. Gifts were exchanged, refreshments were served and Santa Claus visited each room, after which school was dismissed for a 10-day vacation. The children will return to school Wednesday after New Year's.

Dr. and Mrs. Kellogg are the parents of a girl, born Monday, December 18 at the Nampa hospital. The baby has been named Ruth Irene.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher enjoyed Christmas with all their children home. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Thorburn and children of Maxwell, California, Miss Mildred Fisher of Portland and Don Fisher of Mt. Vernon, Washington were here for the holidays and then Christmas Day. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fisher and Mrs. Quimby of Nyssa were also guests at the Fisher home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pearcy and family left last week for Canon City, Colorado to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Pearcy's parents.

The Apple Valley church will serve a New Year's dinner after church services Sunday, December 31. It will also be in the form of a farewell dinner for Elmer Pilcher, who has moved to Nampa. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

Eighteen MYF young people went caroling in the community Sunday evening, after which they went to the Smalley home where chili, doughnuts, cookies and hot chocolate were served.

The WSCS will meet at the home of Francis Smalley Wednesday afternoon, January 3. The women will have two quilts to tie that afternoon.

Miss Carol Lee Porterfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Porterfield of Santa Cruz, California, is spending the holidays with her grandmother, Mrs. Ella Stephens, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reed and son. She will also visit relatives in Boise.

Mrs. Heide Bailey returned Saturday from a trip to North Platte, Nebraska, where she visited relatives for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bailey returned Saturday from a week's trip to San Diego, where they visited Mrs. Bailey's brother. They were accompanied by a brother, sister and sister-in-law of Mrs. Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reed and Mrs. Ella Stephens had as Christmas dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McIlveen and family and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Melvold and family of Boise. Lawrence Trice of Vale and Carol Lee Porterfield of Santa Cruz, California.

Grandma Hicks is not at all well this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Seward and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Seward and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seward and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Fox and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wild and Roy Wild of Nyssa, motored to Nampa for Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Gibson and children. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson lived in Apple Valley a few years ago on the Frank Zimdars ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Conley Wilson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson and family journeyed to Melba, Christmas, to have dinner in the John Miller home. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller for dinner and a gift exchange Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Ketchum and baby of Salt Lake City, Utah visited over the holidays with Mrs. Ketchum's sister, Mrs. Kenneth Saunders, and family and with her brother, Dr. Kellogg, and family.

Thaniel Botner arrived Saturday for a 10-day furlough from Camp Pendleton, where he is in marine training.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boston and family were guests Christmas evening for dinner in the D. A. Rogers home in Roswell.

Mrs. Henry Meier of Nyssa was a Christmas day guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Meier.
