LOCAL COUPLE MARRIED

At an impressive yuletide ceremony performed at the Nyssa Methodist church at 8 p. m. December 21, Darlene Erwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Erwin, and Harry Council, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Council were united in marriage. The Rev. Donald S. Campbell officiated at the double ring ceremony. The candlelight ceremony was performed before an arch of pink and white chrysanthemums and holly, flanked by baskets of pink and white chrysanthemums.

The bride wore a white satin floor-length gown with a train and the fingertip veil was held in place by a seed pearl tiara. She carried a white Bible, on which was placed an orchid. The bride was attended by her sister, Dorothy Erwin, as maid of honor, and Doris Rawson of Boise, and Mrs. Lyle Miner, as bridesmaids. Miss Erwin wore an aqua taffeta gown with net overskirt. Miss Rawson a maize taffeta and Mrs. Miner pink taffeta, each with net overskirts. The attendants carried bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums and wore rhinestone necklaces, the gift of the bride.

Gloria Erwin, sister of the bride, and Dixie Council, niece of the groom, were flower girls and wore turquoise taffeta gowns. Dick Council, nephew of the groom was ring bearer.

The groom was attended by his brother, Chester Council of New Plymouth, with Perry Coleman and Ross Grover as ushers.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Tom Nishitani, who sang "Always" and Hugh Tobler who sang "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Carlos Buchner played the wedding marches.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Erwin chose a teal blue crepe dress, and Mrs. O. P. Council wore a royal blue crepe. Each wore red rosebud corsages.

A reception followed in the church parlors, with Mrs. E. D. Mickelson cutting the wedding cake, and Mrs. Hugh Tobler and Mrs. Robert Wilson presiding at the coffee urns. Miss Vera Fay Council was in charge of the guest book and Miss Pami Kasahara and Miss Betty Newbill the gift table.

Mrs. Council was graduated from the Nyssa high school in 1947 and attended the Northwest Nazarene college at Nampa for one year. She has been employed at the First National bank in Nyssa.

Following a trip to Payette lakes, the couple will reside in Corvallis, where the groom is attending Oregon State college and majoring in agriculture.

MARRIED IN UTAH

A wedding of interest to many in this community was performed December 18 in Ogden at the Episcopal church of the Good Shepherd, when Helen Marie Mally, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mally of Nyssa, became the bride of John Grover Kelly, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Kelly of San Francisco.

The vows were exchanged before an altar beautifully arranged with white candles in seven-branch candelabra, festooned with seasonal greens. Large baskets of white chrysanthemums were placed on either side of the candelabra. The Rev. Francis Joseph MacGinnis officiated at the ceremony.

White candles and evergreen sprays were placed in the windows of the church, and the pews were marked with greens and white bows.

Professor J. Clair Anderson of Weber college played the wedding marches and Frank Thurman sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Benediction".

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin model over Chantilly lace, with long sleeves and sweetheart neckline and full skirt made en train. The veil fell from a crown of old French lace and orange blossoms. The bride carried a white orchid with red ribbons.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Don Banks, who wore a sea foam taffeta and carried white camellias.

The groom was attended by Perry Hagen of Salt Lake City as best man, and Don and Seth Linfords served as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Bertha Eccles hall and large Christmas bells and tall standards of large white chrysanthemums and floor candelabra were placed as a background for the bride party.

Music for the reception was furnished by the Weber college string quartet and solos by Frank Thurman, accompanied by Bonnie Stofe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rock of Baker, formerly of Payette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marvis, to Charles Batt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald A. Batt of Nyssa. Marvis, 1950 graduate of the Payette high school, was queen of the L. D. S. Gold and Green ball of the Weiser stake last spring. Batt, 1950 graduate of the Nyssa high school, spent the past several months taking a railroad telegraphy course at the Nampa Business college. He enlisted in the United States air force and will leave for basic training at San Antonio, Texas January 8.

After a two-weeks wedding trip to Los Angeles and La Jolla, California, the couple will be at home in Ogden, where Mrs. Kelley is instructor of English, and Mr. Kelley instructor of dramatics and speech at Weber college.
