

WSCS Women Will Meet In Caldwell

APPLE VALLEY, Feb. 1.—The WSCS women will motor to Caldwell Wednesday, February 7 to be guests of the Caldwell WSCS at a birthday party celebrating the 10th birthday anniversary of the organization. They are to be there by 2:15 p. m.

The evening of February 7 will be the time for the polo dinner to be served in Parma at the community hall. Residents of this community are asked to donate chickens for the dinner, so anyone having to donate should contact Jack Reed or Jack Wilson. An auction will also be held in connection with the polo drive and everyone is asked to contribute as generously as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Arnold and son, Darwin, Frank Plagmann visited in the homes of friends in Ontario Sunday.

Mrs. Ted Dick and daughters, Bobby and Jo, visited Mrs. Dick's sister in Weiser Saturday.

Dale Collins was out of school part of this week because of influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Wilson and sons, Allen and Doyle, of Mountain Home visited in the Jerry Sinclair and Conley Wilson homes Sunday.

Mrs. Rosa Rowe of Portland visited last week in the home of her brother, Reuben Henshaw and family. Mrs. Rowe left here Friday for Spokane, where she will also visit.

Approximately 50 neighbors enjoyed the potluck supper at the schoolhouse Saturday evening. After supper, the game of rate your mate, based on the popular radio program of that name, was played, with Mrs. Clarence Fritts acting as master of ceremonies. Other quiz games were also played.

Clarence Fritts has been making several trips to Ontario for treatment on his knee.

Mrs. Frank Plagmann, who went to Albany, Oregon two weeks ago to visit her sisters is making a longer stay than she planned. Last week she became ill and had to have a doctor's care. It is thought her illness was caused by a bad fall she suffered at her home several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Collins and children and Elsa and Beverly McGrath, all of Boise, were Sunday visitors in the Faye Collins home.

Mrs. Bill Hild visited over the week-end in the home of her sister in Twin Falls.

A PTA executive meeting is being held Thursday evening of this week at the schoolhouse.

Mrs. Faye Collins and son, Dale, were Nampa visitors Monday.

Nyssa Girl In Ceremony—

Gladys Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Lewis was among the 36 nurses receiving their caps at the ceremony held Friday evening, January 26 at the St. Luke's training school in Boise. A reception was held at St. Margaret's hall following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Louise Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. George Dunkel of Pocatello attended the ceremony.

Nyssa Town Team Wins Over Elks

The Nyssa town basketball team defeated Ontario Elks basketball team 67 to 61 in a game played in the Ontario high school gymnasium January 24. The proceeds from the game went into the March of Dimes drive for polio.

The Nyssa boys, playing without any substitutes, took an early lead and held on to it, although the Ontario Elks did manage to grab a short-lived one-point margin three times during the contest. Nyssa led 31 to 27 at half-time.

Duane Holcomb and Tom Moore were the "big guns" in the Nyssa attack, with 24 and 22 points respectively.

Nyssa's lineup was as follows: R. Wilson, 11; T. Moore, 22; R. Larson, 6; D. Holcomb, 24, and C. Wilson, 4.

Return To Pocatello—

Mr. and Mrs. George Dunkel returned Tuesday to their home in Pocatello after visiting for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Lewis. Mrs. Dunkel and Mrs. Lewis are sisters.
