

Boy Thrown From Truck At Owyhee

OWYHEE, June 21—Dr. Harry Rowe arrived Friday at the R. L. Patton home after taking the state dental examinations at Portland. Mrs. Rowe and son have been here with her parents for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Maw and Mrs. Grant Patterson went to Salt Lake City Wednesday for an M. I. A. conference and returned home Sunday.

Jimmy Cottengin of Eugene, who is spending the summer here with his cousin, Bob Rice, and family, narrowly escaped serious injury Wednesday about noon when he and Mr. Rice were returning home from Nyssa. The door of the truck in which they were riding flew open as they turned at the Werner Peutz place west of Owyhee junction and the boy was thrown from the truck. Another truck close behind the Rice vehicle and making the same turn was stopped before hitting the boy or other truck. Mr. Peutz and Mr. Rice took Jimmy to the hospital where he stayed over night but was released after examination showed no serious injury. Jimmy is the grandson of Mrs. Esther Cottengin, who lived in Owyhee for several years.

Mrs. Lee Householder, Mrs. Vic

Marshall, Mrs. Guy Glenn and Guyanne and Diane and Joanne Schweizer visiting here from Washington, attended the Owyhee Riding club picnic in Idaho City Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Vanscoy and children of Payette and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ahrens and family of Nampa were dinner guests in the George Schweizer home Sunday.

Books for the summer reading program sponsored by the PTA will be available at Skinner's grocery store at Owyhee Junction by the last of the week and may be checked out any time during store hours.

Bobby Skinner went to Ontario Monday afternoon to a swimming party and potluck dinner in the evening with a group of young people from the Presbyterian church in Adrian.

Mrs. Martha Klingback and Fred and Mrs. George Gregg and Tommy went to Boise Tuesday to shop. Annette and Janice Gregg spent the day with their aunt, Mrs. Kenneth McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Williams were hosts at a Father's day dinner given in honor of T. H. Brewer. Several members of the family attended.

Dianna and Junior Whitman of Bremerton, Washington spent Monday with Kay and Butch McDonald. The Whitman children are spending the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lorrison in Sunset Valley.

Mrs. Martha Klingback entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Gregg and children and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McDonald and children at dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morfitt of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Werner Peutz and Wanda had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. William Peutz.

Bobby Kriner, home from school at Klamath Falls for a short vacation, and Ronnie Kriner called on Fred Klingback at his home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Patton and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dimmick went to Idaho City Sunday on the picnic held by the Owyhee Riding club.

Vera Patterson telephoned his parents Sunday from Camp Roberts, California, where he is stationed with the army. He told them he had been assigned to the tank corps.

Mrs. Gerald Silppy and boys had Sunday dinner with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Franklin, in Parma.

Ira Price was an over-night guest of Larry Culbertson Saturday, returning to his home with him after the 4-H meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Brown and children went to Caldwell Sunday where they met relatives from Boise and Payette for a picnic in honor of a brother, Warren Brown and family, who are visiting from New York City.

Members of the Owyhee Community church decided Sunday morning to accept an invitation to attend Arcadia Sunday school Sunday, June 24. Sunday school will begin at 10 a. m. and last until 11:30. The Ambassador male quartet will sing for the group until 12:30. A potluck lunch will then be served with drinks to be furnished by the hosts. Everyone is asked to take his lunch and table service.

Rev. Robert Kriner will hold regular services Sunday evening at the Owyhee Community church.

Mrs. Martha Klingback and Fred arrived Wednesday from Seattle for a two-weeks stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Brown and children, Mrs. Lynn Kygar and Maxine and Merle Kygar were in Boise Tuesday on business and visited in the Donald Franklin home. Maxine stayed with her sister, Mrs. Franklin for a time.

Going On Vacation—
Rev. and Mrs. Austin J. Hollingsworth of the Church of Christ left Wednesday on a trip to Ashland, Oregon, where they will visit his brother, W. F. Hollingsworth, and family. Mrs. John Shoenwald of Vale, daughter of W. F. Hollingsworth, will accompany Rev. and Mrs. Hollingsworth. After a brief visit at Ashland, the three will then drive to Turner, Oregon, where they will be delegates to the state convention of Oregon Christian churches. Rev. Hollingsworth will be in charge of the "stewardship" session of the convention, which will open June 25 and close Sunday, July 1. Officials estimate that 3000 persons will attend the session, which will be held in the Turner memorial tabernacle, located on a 17-acre campground, which has been used for the Christian church sessions for the last 60 years. Rev. John Daly of Nyssa will be the guest speaker in the Nyssa Church of Christ while Rev. Hollingsworth is away.

Hospital Work Continues—
Mrs. Carlos Buchner announced that there will be no meeting of the Malheur Memorial Hospital auxiliary in June. The sewing groups are continuing with their work. The women of the community are reminded to can extra food for the hospital. The regular food pick-up will be held this fall. Also, if anyone has extra fresh fruit, they can leave it at the hospital and someone will freeze it for use there.
