valley. She carried a red rosebud corsage on a white Bible. Mrs. Homer Didericksen, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Vivian Hoke and Miss Darlene Smith were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of yellow, green and orchid and each carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Marlyn and Carolyn Keller, twin nieces of the bride, were flower girls, and Victor Jones, brother of the bride was ring-bearer.

An uncle of the groom, Don Pitken was best man. Leo Keller and Homer Didericksen were ushers. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Leo Keller cut the cake and Mrs. William Hopkins poured the punch. Miss Margie Bowers was in charge of the guest book. Miss Joyce McGinnis was assisted at the gift table by Fern Cameron, Cecelia Sillonis and Mary Brown.

The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white peonies. After a short wedding trip, the couple returned to a farm near Roswell, where they are living.

Water Institute Plans Completed

Speakers for the second annual irrigators' institute to be held Thursday, June 28, at the community hall on Oregon slope, highway 30, seven miles north of Payette or 10 miles north of Ontario, will be from Oregon State college, the University of Idaho and Boise.

All farmers of this area interested in irrigation are invited to attend the all-day institute, sponsored by the Idaho Power company. The program commences at 9:30 o'clock. Leeds Bailey, Malheur county extension agent, representing Oregon state extension service, Oregon state college, Corvallis, will talk on "Preparation of Soils"; Max C. Jensen, associate professor and irrigationist, University of Idaho, Moscow, will speak on "Sprinkler Irrigation and Drainage Pumping"; and T. C. Butler, Boise, who has 40 years of experience in hydro-electric engineering and irrigation drainage, will talk on "Pump Efficiency and Design". The subject of Ralph E. Gale, Boise, assistant to the president of the Idaho Power company, will be "Idaho Power Company Electric Service Applied to Pumping". Idaho Power company has made arrangements with the Park Improvement club members to serve a lunch to all farmers attending the institute.

Following the talks and motion pictures illustrating irrigation techniques, the institute will end in the afternoon with a field trip for actual demonstration of pumps and sprinkler systems. The demonstrations will be held on three farms near the community hall.

L. W. Brainard, Idaho Power company division manager at Payette, said it is expected the second annual institute for irrigators will attract about 500 farmers from throughout this area.

At the cackle of dawn, Saturday, June 16, the pullet derby at Tobler's Feed and Fuel feed store, came to an end when hen No. 3 laid the first egg and was declared the winner of the race.

Nettie Simpson, one of the first to enter the contest to pick the winner, selected hen No. 3 and missed the exact date by only one day, and will be awarded the electric clock.

V. Farrell, missed the exact date by two days, but won the second prize, a range set. Mrs. R. R. Thomas gained third to win a pair of kitchen shears. The race was close all the way. Hugh Tobler, manager of the feed store, said, and interest was increasing as "L-Day" neared. The derby was started March 5 when the New Hampshire pullets, six weeks old, were placed in a special pen in the Tobler store feed store. During the derby, all six pullets were fed the same ration—Purina Growena, with Formula "1028" added.

Hen No. 3, the winner, was only 20 weeks and two days old when she produced her first egg to win the derby.

Miss Donna Lee Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wilson was recently installed as honor queen of the Nyssa Bethel of Job's Daughters. (Estano Photo)

Going to the Irrigators' Institute?

You'll be in on an interesting program if you go to the Community hall on Oregon slope, Thursday, June 28, for the second annual Irrigators' Institute. The hall is on Highway 30, 7 miles north of Payette or 10 miles north of Ontario. The program starts at 9:30 a.m.

You will hear specialists on electric pumping, sprinkler irrigation and soil conservation. There will be motion pictures and a demonstration of pumping for gravity-flow and sprinkler irrigation.

Lunch will be served by the Idaho Power company. Everyone interested in irrigation is invited, says Reddy.

IDAHO POWER A CITIZEN WHEREVER IT SERVES

When fire burns a forest many valuable products go up in smoke. Men lose jobs. Families lose picnic areas. Wildlife suffers and agriculture is endangered through potential loss of water supplies. When forests are kept green and growing everybody benefits.

ALWAYS BE CAREFUL WITH FIRE IN THE WOODS

- ★ BREAK MATCHES BEFORE THROWING THEM AWAY
- ★ BURY CIGARETTE BUTTS AND PIPE HEELS
- ★ DOUSE CAMPFIRES WITH WATER.
- ★ ALWAYS USE THE ASH TRAY IN YOUR CAR.
- ★ BE EXTRA CAREFUL WITH TRASH FIRES.
- ★ USE CARE IN ALL WOODS OPERATIONS.

★ KNOW AND OBEY THE LOCAL FIRE LAWS.
