Women Display Hat Creations

SUNSET VALLEY, June 28—Members of the Worthwhile club attending the June meeting in a spring hat of their own creation provided much fun. No prizes were awarded as each hat seemed to be in a class of its own. The hat creations varied from beautiful floral arrangements, velvets and bows, a bird and tractor combination and garden seeds with miniature hoe and rake, to six rubber-mice and their nest. A demonstration of lambshade making was also given at the Thursday afternoon meeting by the hostess, Mrs. Grover Cooper. Dessert and frozen drinks were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. O. P. Council and Mrs. Cooper. The July club meeting will be the annual picnic to be held on the Ken Lorensen lawn with a supper for the members, their families and friends.

Club guest for the afternoon was Mrs. Clarence Keller of Ontario, who was a houseguest visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Council, while her husband was attending national guard encampment at Fort Lewis.

Celebrating Father's day last Sunday, three couples, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Chadd, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gahan and Mr. and Mrs. Malloy, dined at the East Side cafe and attended a picture show. Another group also celebrating the occasion by dining at the same cafe were Mr. and Mrs. George Folkman and family and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Simpson. Other Ontario visitors during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Knowles.

Robert Albritton arrived Saturday at the Ira Price home after attending the national guard encampment at Fort Lewis. Both Mr. and Mrs. Albritton, who both have positions as teachers in the Salem school system for the coming year, will spend the summer on the Ira

Price farm. Mrs. Albritton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Price, lived at Elgin, Oregon the past year.

The Ira Price family, Mr. and Mrs. Albritton, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Price and Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Dierking picked at Caldwell Sunday.
