Returning Thursday from a two-weeks trip to Comstock, Nebraska were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snyder and family. Also making the trip east were Mr. and Mrs. Clair Snyder and Mrs. Adah Snyder, all of Caldwell.

Miss Janell Haney was an overnight guest at the George Folkman home Thursday and Friday, and Carol Folkman spent the week-end at the Haney home in Nyssa.

Lurelle Bergam is attending the college of Idaho at Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Chadd and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mallory were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gahan at a birthday dinner honoring Mr. Chadd Saturday evening.

Marlene Bergam spent the week-end as a houseguest at the home of her friend, Lyna Langford in Nyssa.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reffett were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Price, who have been visiting in Wisconsin, Nebraska and Minnesota since early June are expected home this week.

Houseguests at the Walter Hillis home from Monday until Saturday include Mrs. Hillis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rudolph of Burley, Idaho and her sister, Mrs. Jack Dudley, also of Burley. A family supper and reunion was held Tuesday evening at the Hillis home. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hillis' two daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Pendarvis and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell. The entire group were guests at the Pendarvis home Wednesday evening and at the Mitchell home Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McCoy were houseguests at the Charles McCoy home Monday. McCoy is employed at a sawmill at Reedsport, Oregon.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Baty and Mr. and Mrs. Cleaver visited in Adrian at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cleaver.

Half of the club members were still in secret session in the bedroom at six o'clock, as the Worthwhile club was such a busy group when it met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Perko. After 20 members answered roll call by giving valuable household timesaver hints, the group discussed making gifts for children's use while hospitalized. Mrs. W. L. Chapin and Mrs. Frank Perko were appointed to contact the hospital authorities and see what was needed. Movies were shown of Mr. and Mrs. Chapin's trip through the Tetons, Black hills, and of Peterson's gardens. After the co-hostesses, Mrs. Magnus Ekanger and Mrs. Perko, served refreshments, the losers of the recent attendance contest held a secret session in the bedroom to plan some type of surprise party for the winners. Listening to the peals of laughter and giggles coming from the bedroom, and remembering last year's surprise of being aroused at four in the morning for negligee breakfast, this year's winners are wondering what will be coming and when.

Once Over and IT'S ALL OVER with a McCormick Beet Harvester

Here's a real time and labor saver . . . the McCormick HM-1 Beet Harvester for Farmall H, M and MD Tractors.
In one continuous operation, this machine tops, lifts, cleans and loads the beets into a special two-wheel cart to complete the harvest in a "once over and it's all over" operation.
With the HM-1, you can harvest 5 to 6 tons of beets in an hour. You don't have to worry about weather or field conditions with this machine, because it does a good job when it's not easy to harvest beets by other methods.
Ask us for details about this labor-saving, time-saving machine.
