

Farewell Party Held for Couple

SUNSET VALLEY, Jan. 17.—Fifty friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith rented the Nyssa American Legion hall for Sunday and gave a farewell dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who have lived in this area for about 14 years. Smith has sold his place and purchased a farm in southwestern Kansas.

Miss Jo Ann Price visited from Sunday until Tuesday at the home of her brother, Kenneth Price of Adrian.

Wayne Simpson and his brother, Lynn Simpson, both of Hooper, Utah, have purchased the Weaver farm. They are brothers of Carl Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson and son, Earl, left Monday morning on a trip to Gunn, Colorado to visit relatives. Terry Wilson returned to home with Mr. and Mrs. James Robb, who are doing the house work. Mrs. Augusta Peoples of Blythe Falls arrived Sunday evening to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peoples. Her father has not been well.

Doctors scraped Dr. J. J. Bennett's thumb this week, and although he is still in the Nyssa hospital his condition is much improved.

Supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Robb Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Madison Robb, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hamilton and family of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Robb and son, Mike.

Keith Wooley, who broke his leg just above his ankle last fall, is able to hop the east road to the store.

Ray Carter, 9 1/2 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Carter, had the misfortune of sunning a needle into the ball of his foot, and then the needle broke off. The doctor has had an operation at the Caldwell hospital and had the needle removed.

Robert Morgan told his farm story Friday. His son, Lurely, is attending college in California, and home for the week-end in order to help the family move to Nyssa. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan have purchased a home on North Second street.

Robert Bennett has rented the Guthrie farm, and moved sometime this month into the house.

Mrs. Grover Cooper attended a sewing class under the sponsorship of the extension unit at the home of Mrs. Don Fox.

Mrs. Miller of the county extension office will preside at a mother's training meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Grover Cooper Friday, January 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Roswell were visitors at the home of their son, Harley, Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wilson, Mrs.

John Taylor of Coquille, and Mr. and Mrs. James Smith were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robertson.

Members of the Nyssa auxiliary cleaned the dining hall Friday afternoon, sweeping and mopping the floor, and washing out the cupboards. The group started a series of dances at the hall, to be held every other Saturday night, beginning January 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Garner drove to Boise Friday for medical check-up.

All-day visitors at the Wayne Robb home Friday were Mrs. Robb's grand, Leo Davis, and her mother, Mrs. Mae Lytle of Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred O'Connell of Moses Lake were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmano Thursday evening. The guests are visiting in Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Council and Paul Bottelshofer, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Miller and daughter, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller in Ontario Sunday.

Tuesday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perko this week were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Porto, and Mr. Porto's sister, Mrs. Ralph Worley.

Mrs. Wayne Garner and baby daughter, Kathy Lynn, arrived home Wednesday after convalescing at the home of Mrs. Garner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Pett.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Fenarvis and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hillis.

Glenn Nottingham of Boise was an overnight guest at the O. P. Council home Friday. Mrs. Council accompanied her son Glenn on a trip to Boise Friday.

Mrs. M. L. Kurtz was hostess at a taffy-pull in her home Monday evening after school, when the intermediate girls of the United Presbyterian Sunday school entertained the boys of the class.

Tillie Sinton and Jake Borge played for a dance in Sunset valley Saturday night.

The Boy Scout troop 438 went on a hike to Rimrock Saturday. Boys from here were Terry Borge, Wallace Butler and Eugene Harris.

Mrs. Jake Borge began teaching in the Adrian grade school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Glenn returned Tuesday from Modesto, California, where they had been visiting Mrs. Glenn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Williams, and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Glenn attended a card party in the Larry Dimmik home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Krieger, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rice and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Kurtz attended a dance in Caldwell Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Topliff and Teresa visited in the Harry Warren home in Parma Thursday. Mr. Warren had been injured in an accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Martinez and children returned from Walnut Grove, California Wednesday.

Most of Week's Books Non-fiction

Most of the titles on this week's list of new books at the Nyssa County library are non-fiction, including biography, humor, fishing, practical suggestions in speaking, and in stamp collecting. The 100 novels in the group will circulate for seven days only, while they are new, whereas those non-fiction titles which are likely to be in demand for a time, will circulate for the usual two weeks but will not be renewable.

James L. Ellenwood, an experienced public speaker, advises some and suggests how to proceed in "You're Going to Give a Speech".

"The Stamp Collector's Guide" discusses the many phases of stamp collecting, including stamp design, rarities, values, and display. It is prepared at the request of Philately, Smithsonian Institution, and is Franklin D. Brown.

Books of biography will enjoy "Boyce to Windward" by Joseph C. Furnas, which is the life of Robert Louis Stevenson drawn from contemporary sources. Also biographical is "The English Bunting", which is a memoir of the poet, Edna St. Vincent Millay, by Vincent Sheean.

An account of deep-sea fishing is Alan Villiers' "Quest of the Echo-shoal or Argus". The author himself was with the Portuguese codfishing fleet on their visits to the Grand Banks and Greenland.

John Gould, a Maine farmer, makes humorous observations on the life about him in "Neither Hay Nor Grass".

"Wanowen" by Esther DeGraff is a first novel, the story of the life of an orphaned boy who grew up in the
