Seen Your Lamp Dealer Lately?

Chances are, you haven't. For all through December he was snowed under with stacks and stacks of orders from people who wanted lamps for Christmas-giving and other people who wanted their homes to look cheerful and bright for the holiday.

In January your lamp dealer took inventory of what was left of his stock.

But now his display floor is bristling with scores of brand new lamps. Handsome floor lamps for reading or sewing. Exquisite table lamps with silk shades that make everyone say "oh" and "ah". Sight-saving study lamps that help boys and girls do their homework.

If you haven't seen your lamp dealer lately — then by all means see him now. With his wonderful new selection, you're sure to find the perfect lamp for every need.
