AMITY CLUB MEETS

The Nyssa Junior Women's Amity club held its annual banquet and election of officers Thursday night at Carl's Doll House. The theme of the entertainment was "Spring House-cleaning Time".

The long table had as its center decoration, two potted flowering plants with green trellis work. Between the trellis were stretched miniature clotheslines, from which tiny articles of clothing and bedding were hung. Placecards were in the shape of dustpans, brooms, ladders, and other cleaning equipment. Favors for each of the 20 members were small bottles of hand lotion.

Mrs. Phillip Woodard acted as mistress of ceremonies. The apron string sextet sang two numbers, "Tis Springtime, Time to Clean At Last" and "Nobody Knows The Trouble I've Seen". "Housecleaning Lamentations" was acted out by Mrs. Mel Beck. A toast to the unfortunate husbands was given by Mrs. Elwood Flinders and a toast to the over-worked female was given by Mrs. Ez Carr.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Vern and Carol Mink of Nyssa, Bruce Curtis of Vale, Johnny Fogg of Ontario and the Trekker class of Owyhee. The wards of the stake went over the top in the subscription drive, which was just completed. A jubilee dinner will be given in the Hotel Ulan in Salt Lake City April 2 to celebrate the 50th year of the Children's Friend's publication. Seven representatives have been invited to attend from the Nyssa stake.

ATTEND ASSEMBLY

Members of the Nyssa-stake 4-H club attended the 4-H assembly held in the Ontario junior high school building last week. Miss Carolyn Shaver, information specialist of Oregon State college, talked to the assembly. E. M. Hauser, county extension agent, was in charge of the meeting.

WINNERS NAMED

The winners of the Nyssa stake Children's Friend poster contest were announced by Mrs. Iona Flinders, president of the stake primary board. Winner in the younger group division was Marcus Williams of Ontario. Lureta Simpson of Parma was the winner in the older group. They were presented with a year's subscription to the Children's Friend magazine. Those receiving honorable mention were Barbara Beck and Carol Mink of Nyssa, Bruce Curtis of Vale, Johnny Fogg of Ontario and the Trekker class of Owyhee. The wards of the stake went over the top in the subscription drive, which was just completed. A jubilee dinner will be given in the Hotel Ulan in Salt Lake City April 2 to celebrate the 50th year of the Children's Friend's publication. Seven representatives have been invited to attend from the Nyssa stake.

BETHEL INITIATES

A regular session of Bethel No. 33 of Nyssa was held Thursday at the Masonic hall. One candidate, Arlene Howgen, was initiated under the inspection of Mrs. Avon Vert, grand guardian and Andrew Stevens, associate grand guardian of Oregon. Honored Queen Patricia Ann Simpson also presented to the group Mr. Hart, associate grand guardian of the state of Idaho; Mrs. Helen Maulding, past guardian and grand fourth messenger of Oregon and Dr. L. A. Maulding, past associate guardian; Mr. and Mrs. Paul House, guardian and associate guardian; Bonnie Ward, past honored queen and state honorary queen; Donna Lee Wilson, past honored queen; and Patricia Ann Simpson, past junior princess. Miss House also introduced from the side lines Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Hart and members of the local council.

Mrs. Vert gave a short history of Oregon Bethels and presented Honored Queen Patricia House with a miniature gavel. Mr. Stevens gave a talk on attendance and complimented the Bethel on its work. Remarks were also made by Dr. and Mrs. Maulding, Bonnie Ward and Mr. Hart.

After the close of the meeting, a short program was given. Mrs. Dwight Wycoff sang "Because" and "A Tree", accompanied by Mrs. Carlos Buchner, and Glenda Moss played two piano solos, "La Czarline" and "Warbling at Eve'n". Refreshments were served by the girls.
