Hi-Jinks Program Pleases Audience

Conforming with the exciting theme of "Show Boat," members of the showboat troup performed skillfully and in a variable manner before a delighted audience in the Nyssa auditorium Tuesday evening. Sponsored by Thespian Troupe No. 938, it was the fourth annual Hi-Jinks program presented by school students.

School organizations entered contestants in the "Clubs Division," while there was a separate section provided for individual numbers, for those who wished to enter strict competition. Effective lighting enhanced the routine of the four high stepping majorettes, who took first place in the clubs division. As a reward for displaying their twirling and prancing abilities, Betty Fife, Olive Beus, Nani Child, and Donna Lee Wilson received the ten dollar prize. The Future Homemakers of America was the only other club competing in this division. A clever rendition of "A Bicycle Built for Two" was enacted by these contestants.

Joanna Moore came forth wth a hilarious reading entitled "Girl at the Movies," causing the audience to rock with laughter. For this demonstration of unique talent, she walked away with the first prize of ten dollars in the second division of the program.

Honorable mention was given to the couple providing the piano duo of "Malguenia," namely Nani Child and Betty Fife. As Elvin Alexander did excellent impersonating of a record, he too was bestowed with honorable mention. It was announced that depicting a winner in this section was especially difficult for judges, Mrs. Hester, Mrs. Swan and Mrs. Brown, all of Vale. Others in competition were; Claudina Wilson, Onna Pounds, Mike Montoya, Teresa Jensen, Tom Houston, and Amy Lewis.

In addition to the Hi-Jinks talent program, the Thespians presented a humorous play, entitled, "Grandma Pulls the Strings." Getting William Thornton (portrayed by Leland Morris) to propose correctly to Julia Cummings (Nani Child) was the task finally accomplished by Grandma, played by Betty Fife, with the help of Hildegarde's enthusistic efforts. Hildegarde was portrayed by Colleen Bybee, president of the club, and others in the cast were Claudina Wildon and Donna Lee Wilson.

Sunset Valley Group Add to Facilities

Sunset Valley—Three new electrical appliances have been added to the Sunset Valley hall to facilitate individual and community entertaining. An electric range was purchased through the efforts of the Sunset Auxiliary in giving dances at the hall and by contribution from the Chalk Butte Grange and a new vacuum cleaner was obtained with dance proceeds. A new 48-cup coffee urn is being financed by the auxiliary selling vanilla.

At a meeting of the Sunset Auxiliary Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. P. Counsil, the women voted to purchase a long extension cord to be placed in the hall for the vacuum cleaner. It was also decided to purchase weather stripping for the three doors. The women agreed to don their jeans and spend Monday afternoon cleaning up the hall grounds.

A luncheon was served to the 12 present.

The May meeting of the auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. George Folkman the first Thursday in the month and all women of the community are invited.

After our home burned we listed furnishings and personal effects. We now realize we had over $6000 in effects insured for only $3000. Why don't insurance agents suggest people realize how much they own and should insure?

GERMAN ANCESTRY RECEIVED

An extended German pedigree was recived this week by Mrs. Frank J. Pike who is actively doing genealogical research on over 250 lines of ancestry. Hugo Weist of Stuttgart, Germany forwarded historical data on 12 here-to-fore unknown progenitors dating back to the year 1733. Mrs. Pike is a member of the Institute of American Genealogy in Chicago and does much of her research through this society's lending library. Several of her ancestral lines continue back into the 13th, 14th and 15th centuries.
