Sunday, July 20, is the date set for the annual picnic and potluck dinner of the Worthwhile club members and their families. It will also, this year, be home-coming day for former members of the club and their families. The picnic dinner will be held at one o'clock on the lawn at Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lorensen's home in the valley. Mrs. Lorensen and Wilbur Chapin will be hostesses in charge of the affair. Sixteen members of the club met on the L. W. Pomeroy lawn Thursday afternoon for their June meeting, answering roll call by telling interesting items about a river, whose name began with the same letter as their own last name. President Frank Perko read the proposed by-laws, and there was some discussion, but final reading and voting will take place later. Mrs. Grover Cooper presented a varied program for Flag Day. Salad and drinks were served by co-hostesses, Mesdames O. H. Schweizer and Pomeroy.

Arriving Thursday from Idaho Falls were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterson. Mrs. Peterson is visiting several days at the home of her mother, Mrs. Amelia Fyllingness, while her husband Harold is helping in the hay harvest on his farm in the valley.

FHA APPROVED

If you build this home you do not need to seek FHA approval. The plans have already been approved by that agency for maximum loan value in most areas. In other localities satisfactory financing can be quickly arranged.

Here is one positive answer to that perplexing question, "Can I build and finance a home these days?"

This home—THE PAYETTE—has been specially designed by Boise Payette Lumber Company for this area's living conditions. Furthermore, it has been so planned that it can be built on the average family's budget and financed on the most favorable terms under present loan requirements.

The Payette is one of several such Boise Payette designed homes. For complete building plans, material lists and cost information of these homes see the Boise Payette Specially-Designed Homes Book at your local yard.

THE "PAYETTE" HOME FEATURES

- Silentite Windows
- Thick Butt Shingles
- Balsam Wool Insulation
- Devco Quality Paints
- Hardwood Floors
- Olympic Pre-Dipt Shakes
- and other quality materials throughout!
