HIGHER STANDARD OF LIVING !

You live better. You work less. Electricity is your personal servant in scores of different ways.

From the kitchen to the laundry and all through the house, electricity does wonderful things for you and your family. It cooks your meals and washes your dishes. It launders your clothes and lights your way. Every appliance raises your standard of living—it adds to your comfort, enjoyment, and convenience too.

You can enjoy electric living here in the Snake river valley to the fullest extent—electric service is plentiful and it costs you less. Idaho Power Company rates are 42 per cent below the national average.

Make your home electrical in every possible way—see your appliance dealer.
