Golden Wedding Celebrated At Big Bend Sunday

Big Bend — About 100 relatives, friends and neighbors gathered at the Community house in Parma Sunday afternoon to help celebrate the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Newton of Big Bend, who were married July 27, 1902 at Dead Ox Flat.

An appropriate program was arranged by a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Eunice Newton and carried out by their children and grandchildren. Following instrumental music and singing, a brief history of the wedding and Mr. and Mrs. Newton's early wedding life and a reading were given by Mr. Newton's aunt, Mrs. C. B. Ross of Parma.

A huge wedding cake was cut and served by their two daughters, Mrs. Stella Belknap and Mrs. Frances Muntjewerff. Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Jesse Newton poured the coffee, and Mrs. Rosco Harris and Miss Helen Usadel served punch. Mrs. George Bartshe had charge of the guest book and two granddaughters, Mrs. Shirley Newton Jennings and Marie Muntjewerff had charge of the gift table.

Among others present were their four children, Mrs. Stella Belknap and family of Payette, Mrs. Francis Muntjewerff and family of Joseph, Ted Newton and family of Joseph and Bert Newton, who lives at home. Also present were seven grandchildren, Marie and Gary Muntjewerff, Shirley Newton Jennings and Eddie Newton of Joseph, Ore., Howard Belknap and family of Craigmont, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Belknap of Burns, Mrs. Bill Hellinga and family of Payette.

Mrs. Ruth Vance of Portland and Mrs. Esther Wells of Payette sisters of Mr. Newton, and Jesse Newton of Payette, a brother, who attended the wedding 50 years ago, were present at the celebration Sunday.
