Toss-Your-Own Citrus Salads

This time of year, salads taste better than anything else, and "toss-your-own" combinations suit a variety of tastes. As the base of the salads, serve a large bowl of the flavorful canned Florida orange and grapefruit sections mixed with greens—lettuce, chicory, endive, spinach—and French dressing; then pass smaller bowls of sliced tongue, canned shrimp, or shredded cheese, so that everyone can indulge his own taste. Citrus is a good foil for fish, cold meat or chicken, cheese, and other fruits, since it's tart and cool. Citrus salads make a good main course for summer luncheon or dinner, and furnish lots of vitamin C to keep you toned up and refreshed.

Florida Lime French Dressing

1 (10 1/2 oz.) can condensed tomato soup 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 cup Florida lime juice 1 teaspoon minced onion

 1/2 teaspoon paprika 1 clove garlic, finely chopped
 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce 1 1/2 cups salad oil

Combine all ingredients in a quart jar. Cover tightly, shake well to blend, and chill before using. YIELD: 1 quart dressing.
