Ray N. Alters Leaves A Kindly Imprint
On The Hearts Of His Associates

(By Earle Sample)

With the tragic death of Ray N. Alters, New Plymouth newspaper man Sunday evening, there comes a vacancy which probably never can quite be filled in the older newspaper fraternity of Southwestern Idaho and Eastern Oregon.

Although he spent most of his life in the newspaper business, Ray, as he was known particularly by his fellow workers, was of the unassuming type. He was seldom in and never sought the lime light of publicity.

His forte and qualities for which he will be remembered were his faithfulness, loyalty and dependability.
Trained in an older school, a day was never too long for him to put in to get an edition to press or a needed printing job out to satisfy a customer.

He was seemingly so fired with a desire to please, that the amount of work he could accomplish at his trade even in his later years was amazing to much younger and virile men.

His death therefore comes as a great shock to those of us in the newspaper business who knew him and enjoyed association with him for a quarter of a century.

It teaches again the lesson of how fragile the thread is that holds life; and that Providence can and often does gather one "to his fathers" at a time when he is contemplating retirement for a needed rest from a long and active life.

But with the vacancy that has been brought by his death, there will always be the memory for us, his older associates, of the example he gave, and the kindly imprints he left upon our hearts.

Now you Know!
The answer to everyday insurance problems*

By
RALPH
LAWRENCE

QUESTION: My husband has a Comprehensive Personal Liability insurance policy which we are told protects him in case of hunting accidents. Does that mean that if he is injured while hunting his medical expenses will be paid?

ANSWER: No. The type of policy you describe covers your husband's legal liability toward some other person for whose injury he may be responsible while hunting.

*If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office,

Announcement of New Business Policy

August 28, 1952

Dear Friend:

You have been a loyal customer of Tobler's Feed & Fuel, Inc., and we take this opportunity to express our most sincere appreciation for your produce.

By reason of the constant increase in cost of feed and cost of operation we have conducted an extensive study to determine how we could help overcome both of these disadvantages, particularly by way of savings to our customers.

Our analysis has shown that credit losses and credit risks, together with the extra costs of record work are the biggest factors in our increased cost of operation. Of course, this brings about an unfavorable increase in the price at which goods can be sold. The larger companies and modern merchandising methods advocate operations strictly on a cash basis for the purpose of eliminating the necessary reserve for credit losses and credit risks and also to assure the presence of adequate funds with which to buy in larger price savings quantities at interest saving rates. Consequently, Tobler's Feed & Fuel is modernizing for the above reasons so that we may effect savings in cost of goods for you.

In order to accomplish this goal it has been necessary for us to convert operations to a cash basis, effective Sept. 1, 1952. From that date forward, Tobler's Feed will operate strictly on a cash basis and not a credit basis.
However, for the convenience of those who do not wish to pay cash for each purchase, we will have coupon books which will entitle them to a cash discount of 2 per cent. Should you be interested in these books, kindly ask us about them.

This action is taken, not by any desire to deny credit to our loyal patrons, but rather to bring them the savings that the converted basis will

Another necessary change in our normal operation is the discontinuing of our routes. It would not be possible to operate the delivery route on a cash basis; therefore, to enable us to use our modern plan efficiently we regretfully discontinue that one part of our service. So, as notice to those who depend upon the regular delivery days after Sept. 1, 1952, there will be no more regular deliveries. However, we will not discontinue our other services, such as a Feeding Advisory Service, Culling Service, Custom Grinding and Mixing Service, Training Meetings, etc.

Your continued patronage will be appreciated, and we invite you to observe the savings effected by our new policy.

Sincerely,

(Signed) Hugh J. Tobler
