Women's Fellowships

Hold Sept. Meetings
The two groups of the Christian Women's Fellowship, of Church of Christ, met Thursday afternoon, Sept. 26.

Group one, Mrs. John Stafford, leader, met at the church. Eleven members were present. Mrs. Stafford led the devotions, with Mrs. Ruth Pruyn directing the study hour. During the rest of the afternoon, 41 quarts of peaches were prepared by the members, which will be sent to the Children's Home in Boise. Refreshments were served and the meeting was adjourned.

Group two, led by Mrs. Emerson Bingham, met at the home of Mrs. Elvin Ballou on North Fourth street. Present were 12 members and nine children. Devotions were led by Mrs. LeRoy Barton followed by a business meeting conducted by Mrs. Bingham. Mrs. Dan Pennie, assisted by several members, discussed on the subject entitled, "Home Missions and Human Rights" during the study hour. The topic was both interesting and instructive. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Ballou, and the meeting was adjourned.

Merry Matrons Club Meets

Answering roll call with a clever saying of a child, the Merry Matrons club met at the home of Viola Adams Sept. 17. The 14 members and one guest, Mrs. Drake, spent the af-
