New Bowl Center Nears Completion; Opening Date to Be Announced Soon

Conversion of the old dance hall at Gay Way Corners, between Ontario and Payette, into the latest thing in bowling alleys is nearing completion as workmen this week are laying the last of the alley beds.

The building, unused for many months, was purchased in October by George Vaughn, Nyssa business man, for the purpose of constructing a bowling center.

When completed, the Gay Way Bowling and Recreation Center, as will hereafter be called, will boast eight lanes and will be equipped with the most modern Brunswick equipment.

The Tacoma Bowling and Billiard Supply Co. of Tacoma, Wash., is installing the equipment. Supervisor of installation is Johnnie Sandone of Centralia, assisted by Stan Hodgehan, operator of the Lincoln Bowl, Tacoma.

Vaughn, who claims the Gay Way Bowl will be the best equipped bowling center in the northwest, said the plans and requirements of the Amer-

Wilson, Bob Church, Lloyd Wilson, Tom Moore, Richard Wilson, Lyle Miner, Bob Wilson, Ray Larson, Don Heron, Stan Mann, Harold Wilson, and Lynn Metts.

Art Kim is coach-manager of the Ambassador squad of eight players. The team will be accompanied by three gift entertainers.

Ray Larson is chairman of the advance ticket sale for the sponsoring Nyssa Lions club.

Brownie's Cafe Keglers Gain

Stuntz Lumber kept pace with B & E Cafe in maintaining its second place position one game ahead of Owyhee Beauty Shop by winning four games in the Monday night bowling of the Women's Commercial bowling league.

The Farmerettes dropped deeper into the cellar by losing four games, as did the Bowling Center team.

Game honors were as follows:

High individual game, Mrs. B. J. Burbridge, 198.

High individual series, Dorothy Evans, 511.

High single team game, Brownie's Cafe, 651.

High team series, B & E Cafe, 1847.
