

Sunset Valley Speaks

Mrs. Lyman Pomeroy
Phone 02-13

Mrs. S. E. Flanagan is to be co-hostess to the A.N.K. Garden club Tuesday at the Mrs. M. L. Judd home.

Kenneth Lorensen is home after a long trip. He and Mrs. Lorensen went through Denver, Colo. and Houston, Texas, through the outskirts of New Orleans, La., to Roseland, 80 miles north of New Orleans, where they visited relatives of Mrs. Lorensen; then up Mississippi river to Greenville, Ark., through Arkansas up north through Des Moines to north-west Nebraska. These are just the highlights of a 6,000 mile trip by car. They went through the drought stricken areas from eastern Colorado to well down in Texas, about 600 miles, and Lorensen is well pleased he lives in Malheur county. He came home by train and expects to go back soon to get Mrs. Lorensen, who stayed in Nebraska with her sick mother, Mrs. Turner.

Herman Lorensen and Kenneth Lorensen had Sunday dinner with

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Chapin. Mr. and Mrs. Lew McCoy, former residents of Sunset Valley, are moving down from Ironside to near Cairo Junction for the winter. Mrs. McCoy is at the store at Ole's Corner, while Charles McCoy helps move the cattle down.

Thursday, the Sunset Valley auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Carl Simpson. There was an important business meeting, and various items to be discussed by the nine members present. It was decided that dances would be given later, after the Christmas rush is over. Also, the Christmas packaging of cookies is to be done on the evening of Dec. 19 at the home of Mrs. Clifford Mink, at 208 Ehrgood avenue in Nyssa. Any member that can do so, is asked to help. Others, please bring their cookies to Mrs. Carl Simpson's home that afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Pomeroy spent Friday in Boise visiting Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hobson of Hereford, Texas.

Mrs. Homer Didericksen visited the James Chadd home and saw the new baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wyatt have had houseguests the last week Mrs. Dee Deem of Elgin, Ore., and children visited there, being joined by Mr. Deem, Thursday. They expect to start home Monday. Betty and Kenneth Parker and children visited with them one evening, as did Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Schweizer.

Mrs. James Chadd brought their new son, Ross, home from the hospital Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Ekanger went to Caldwell Tuesday. Friday night they visited with the Lloyd Cleavers, who were injured in a car wreck.

John Knottingham has been helping O. P. Council pick his corn. Friday Fred Babcock came with his mechanical picker and finished the field.

Mrs. Dick Wyatt, Mrs. Vic Marshall and Mrs. Lee Strickland went to Boise Tuesday.

Donald Hite from Haines, Ore., formerly of the Owyhee community was visiting in the valley Saturday evening. Among others he called on O. P. Council.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Schweizer had as supper guests Wednesday, her brother, Harry Russell, his wife and daughter, Mrs. Jack Warnick, all of Toledo, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schweizer from Vale, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parker from Nyssa. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wyatt and their houseguest, Mrs. Dee Deem, came to visit.

Mrs. Delbert Garner came home from Ogden, Utah, Wednesday. She went there Saturday to visit her mother, who has been ill, but is improving. Mrs. Garner says that it is cold in Ogden and there is plenty of snow.

The Wayne Berretts, among others went to the Owyhee Relief Society bazaar Friday evening at the Oregon Trail school house.

Grover Cooper has been seriously ill with double pneumonia. Friends will be glad to know he is well on the way to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Woods of Caldwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Newman of Burley, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Pomeroy. The Newmans and Pomeroy had not seen each other for 13 years, when the Pomeroy's taught school at Twin Falls.

The Chalk Butte Grange met Friday evening. They will entertain Pomona in February.

Mrs. Ira Price expects to attend the H.E.C. conference Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Edith Fullerton in Vale.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dimmick and Mr. and Mrs. George Folkman went to Boise Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rockwell and two sons and Mrs. Rockwell's mother, Mrs. Ray Leppier, all of Wapato, Wash., have been visiting Mrs. Annie Gregg and son, Herschel. Wallace and George Gregg came from Quincy, Wash., with their trucks Monday. They helped their brother, William, in moving to Washington, starting back Wednesday morning. The William Greggs have lived in the valley since their marriage, eight years ago. Each lived in Nyssa before that about seven years.

Jim Langley was operated on at Nampa Friday, and is in the hospital there.

with built-in, quick-acting hitching and loading jack...

The NEW MM 15300 SPREADER has the features you want! Extra large feed ratchet for 5 ranges of feeding gives controlled spreading from 3 to 15 loads per acre. New side extension shields for the upper beater are hinged to prevent wrapping of long manure around the shaft. The low set wheels and box make loading much easier and faster. This new spreader can be backed into barns with the ease of a go-cart.

MM sturdy construction, heavy-duty bearings, and extra-heavy-duty axle and shafts assure long life with minimum maintenance. The main frame of this big 75 bushel spreader is reinforced with heavy-duty steel angles and large gusset plates to give extra strength to the sides. Sideboard edges are also protected with long, heavy-duty steel angles. The cross-treat wooden bottom prevents rot and deterioration.

KIDS tell your mother she will like this carton because:

They are much easier to pour from without spilling. When one carton is empty it can be thrown away without refrigeration space being taken up by a partly filled larger half gallon container.

There is a savings in the cost of your milk. You get two quarts of locally processed milk for the same price as a half gallon. Besides you get the plastic handle and it only takes five to get a free show ticket.

When you buy locally processed milk you are helping to make jobs for local people.

Be sure to save your plastic handles even if you don't use them now. Valuable prizes will be offered later for your handles.
