Methodist Women Hold General Meeting Thursday

The general meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church was held Thursday afternoon on the lawn at the Paul Penrod home on North Third Street. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Penrod, Mrs. Gene Grasty, Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mrs. Walter Roth.

Mrs. Russell Cochran gave the devotionals which introduced the theme for the new year, "A Sober Went Forth." A special guest, Irene Germain, professor of music education and assistant professor of voice at the Flora MacDonald college at Red Springs, North Carolina rendered two vocal solos, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You," accompanying herself on a chording instrument which originated in the southern mountains. She was a guest at the home of her brother, Gene Grasty and family during the week.

The business meeting was presided over by the new president, Mrs. James Stephen and the program was in charge of Mrs. Grasty, vice president and program chairman. The program, an informative portrayal of the work of all the divisions of the woman's society, was participated in by the officers and chairman of the various committees and departments.
