LIGHTING

MAKES YOUR HOUSE
A HOME!

Some homes breathe their welcome. There's a feeling of friendliness, of good cheer. The lights from the windows help make it so.

Think of the attractive homes in your neighborhood. They're well-lighted—every one. Floor lamps and table lamps are appropriately placed. There's plentiful light for reading, sewing, homework, an evening of bridge.

This is a good time of year to take a good look at your lighting and see what can be done to improve it. You may decide on a new lamp—and be sure to fill empty sockets and clean dust from shades, bulbs, and reflector bowls.

At Idaho power's low rates, you can have all the light you want for only a few pennies a day. So light up for better living. Light makes your house a home.
