ADRIAN COMMUNITY CHURCH

Nazarenes Hold Revival Meet

First in a series of revival services, extending through Sunday, Nov. 1, was conducted Wednesday night at the Nyssa Church of the Nazarene, of which the Rev. Robert O. Jackson is pastor.
Heading the "harvest-time" revival is the Rev. I. F. Younger, superintendent of the Nazarene Idaho-Oregon district. Assisting him is Eleanor Mathieson, gospel singer.
Services are held in the church at South 5th and Good avenue beginning at 8 p. m. One Sunday service will be held at 11 a. m.
Prior to his appointment as district chairman, the Rev. Younger held a pastorate in Indiana.

Preaching Series For Methodists Starts Sunday

Through an exchange of pulpits, the Rev. Nothdurft, pastor of Baker Methodist church, will preach Sunday morning and evening at the Nyssa Community Methodist church whose pastor, the Rev. Vernon L. Taylor, will be guest speaker at the Payette Methodist church.
The occasion marks the beginning of a preaching mission in the local church, following on the heels of the preparatory work of members in a program of friendly visitations in the church's parish during the past week.

Sunday morning the Rev. Nothdurft will preach on the subject to be used that morning by the ministers involved in the pulpits exchange, namely "The Holy Habit of Church Attendance," the first in a series based on the theme "The Holy Habits of the Spiritual Life."
Dick Yost, church lay leader who has made arrangements for laymen participation, will conduct the morning service, assisted by Miss Ruth Herrman and Cliff Main.
Sunday evening, the services to begin at 8 o'clock, the Rev. Nothdurft will discuss the second subject in the series, "The Holy Habit of Family Devotions." Henry Hartley will conduct the service, assisted by Charles Steffins.

The Rev. Tom Hill, pastor of the Vale Methodist church, will continue the series with a discussion on "The Holy Habit of Tithing." Hugh Tobler will conduct the services.
Fourth subject in the series, "The Holy Habit of Prayer," will be discussed by the Rev. Ralph Fuller, pastor of Weiser Methodist church. Tuesday evening, Grover Lytle will have charge of the services, with L. E. Robbins and Gilbert Klunkenberg assisting.
"The Holy Habit of Witnessing" is to be discussed Wednesday evening by the Rev. Stanley Andrews, pastor of Payette Methodist church. W. W. Foster, assisted by Lloyd Tobler and Ned Snider, will conduct the services.
Concluding discussion in the series will be on "The Holy Habit of Bible Reading" by the Rev. Taylor, pastor. Melvin Spitzer will conduct

WESLEYAN GUILD PLANS MEETING FOR MONDAY

Miss Emma Zwemke will be host Monday evening to the Wesleyan guild of the Methodist church at her home, 419 North Fourth street, with Mrs. Rosanelle Copeland as co-hostess.
Starting at 8 o'clock, the program for the evening will be under the direction of Miss Myrtle Ilett. Mrs. Muri Duncan will lead the devotions.
All business girls of Nyssa are invited to attend.

Officials Visit Christian Church

Three members of a visitation team visited the Nyssa First Christian church Oct. 12 with a pot-luck dinner for the visitors and congregation preceding conference and field representative for the Northwestern Christian home at Beaverton; Mrs. Howard Rice, new state president of Christian Women's Fellowship, and Walter Lantz, new director of Christian Education in Oregon, were the visitors.
Charles H. Adleman, state secretary, was guest speaker at the church Sunday, Oct. 11. He remained here for a few days to assist in planning the church program for the immediate future.
Monty Smith of Nampa is continuing to serve as an interim pastor until a new minister is named.

Hollingsworths Are Located in Nebraska

Word has been received that the Rev. and Mrs. Austin J. Hollingsworth have arrived at their new home in Lincoln, Neb., where they moved last month after his retirement as pastor of the Nyssa First Christian church.
Their trip to Nebraska involved two flat tires, a visit with relatives at Preston, Idaho, and at Kimball and Sutherland, Neb.
The Rev. Hollingsworth has been supplying pastorless pulpits in various parts of Nebraska since they moved there.
