Berrett's Takes Bowling Lead In Women's League

Berrett's Service gained the lead in the Nyssa Women's Bowling league Monday night after sharing a first place tie with Muir-Roberts-Burningham for a week.

The top spot was gained by Berrett's taking high team series honors, 1816 points, and high single game honors, 698 points.

Stanz Lumber was second in both brackets, with scores of 1730 and 630 points.

High individual series honors were taken by Sadie Butcher, with 481 points for first place, and Denise Reitenbaugh, second with 479 points.

Gloria De Groat had the only 200 game for high individual game and Nell Saito was second with a 182 game.

Taylor's Jumps to 4th Spot In League

Four wins each on Monday, Oct. 5, by Nyssa's two entries in the Snake River Valley Bowling league made them the hottest teams in the league for the week.

Taylor's Fred Marke jumped from seventh place to a fourth place with Idaho Power, each with six wins and losses.

Tobler's Feed continued to top the league with 11 wins and one loss. League standings are as follows (including Oct. 5):

FIRST SALMON REPORTED

First indications of the fall salmon run in the Snake river were reported last week by the Idaho Fish and Game department when chinooks were seen near Weiser.

It was reported by the department that the annual fall chinook salmon run usually starts at Swan Falls dam.

A small run is expected this far up the river this year, based on earlier reports at Bonneville dam.

Nyssa Hunters' Bag Increases As Season Ends

That old bromide about "try, try again" paid off for Paul Penrod, who, on his third attempt, succeeded in bagging a buck Sunday during the hunter's choice season. Penrod met success at Halfway.

A party of three, John Broad, Mike Broad and Jack Ponsler, was not so successful in a five-day hunt, Wednesday to Sunday, in the Seneca area. Mrs. Eddie Taylor and Mrs. John Broad were members of the party for the first two days.

Three does and a buck fell prey to the Jim Elkins, Bill Schoen, Bill Miller and Earl Jennings party that hunted along Pole Creek, near Burns last Sunday. Miller bagged the buck.

Six deer were taken by a party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wilson, Max Jones, Kenny Clark and Bob Fangen. They hunted near Drusey Saturday.

Hunting near Beulah, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bertram took two does Sunday.

Other Beulah hunters were Mr. and Mrs. George Cleaver, Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Cleaver and Ben, Delbert and Lester Cleaver. Their bag was three deer.

The Brogan area proved more fruitful than the Jordan Valley section on a previous hunting trip for Ted Morgan and Lloyd Wilson, each of whom got a doe Sunday.

One buck was the bag of a party of five, Mr. and Mrs. Don Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Paulus and Bill Mayden, while hunting at Malheur reservoir.

The Wallowa area yielded two does to Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Lenkaemper and son, John, who hunted from Saturday to Monday.

Hunting in the Beulah area Saturday and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jensen and Niel Jensen bagged three bucks and two does.

Adrian Trims Joseph 25-0

Adrian—The Adrian Antelopes, scoring in each quarter, overpowered a young, inexperienced Joseph high school football team 25-0 in a non-conference game played here Friday night.

In the first quarter, a pass from Junior McGinnis to Bobby Hammond handed off to Lyle Cleverly was good for six points. McGinnis made it 12 points in the second period when he bucked over from the three-yard line on a quarterback sneak. Lloyd Wood's try-for-point was good.

Jimmy Staker carried the ball to bring the score to 19 points in the third quarter when he bucked through tackle for six yards.

A McGinnis to Hammond pass in the final period accounted for the fourth TD to end the game.

McGinnis was the Antelopes' outstanding player, on the strength of his passing to Ends Hammond and Ken Jensen.

Although held scoreless, the Joseph team played a good brand of ball, sparked by Monk Wicklander, quarterback, and Ed Nexton and Terry Sprague, ends.

SPORTS SHORTS

By DICK YOST

WAS it loneliness for the old home town or just the keen desire to see... well, maybe this is far enough.

Anyway, Dan Lovejoy was home for a visit with his parents and former school chums, such as are still in Nyssa.

Dan, stellar athlete in high school here before graduation last spring, is a freshman at Oregon state college.

As a member of the freshman football squad, Dan has seen action in a couple of scheduled games with other colleges. When asked about his chances of making the long bruising road upward to the varsity he just grunted a reply interpreted to mean: "Well, I'll be lucky to make it."

But Dan has the drive, and there are those who are confident that he will make it.

IT HAS come to light that the Nyssa-Vale football game, which Louie Vendrell, Jr., was named, took it toll of yet another of the Bulldog's veteran players.

Rod Holcomb sustained leg injuries which have put him out of the game at Burns last Friday, and there are no doubt that he will see action against Weiser this Friday, when the Bulldogs meet the Wolverines at Weiser.

HITTING the jackpot was most gratifying for Dr. C. M. Tyler, who was back in town Monday from a gross hunting trip to Lakeview, Ore. Get his limit, Doc said, including three anvets and three Canadian henners—all bagged on the Saturday afternoon flight.

Hunting was done on the 22,000-acre public shooting grounds maintained by the Oregon game commission, 3,000 acres of which comprises a stubble field.

Doc plans to return to the shooting sometime next month with a party of Nyssa hunters.

LOOKING in top form in his paratrooper uniform, Ken Snodgrass, former Nyssa high school baseball star, is busy this week making a round of brief visits with friends while on a seven-day leave from Fort Campbell, Ken.

Ken enlisted in the U. S. army following graduation from high school last spring, and has been attached to the 11th airborne division for the past six months.

Injury-Hit Bulldogs Take On Wolverines

New high school Bulldogs go to Weiser Friday night for a Snake River Valley class A conference football game.

Although the Wolverines rate in the standings with one win, one loss and one tied game, they are favored by a considerable margin to dump the Bulldogs, who have too many players on the injured list.

Out of play for the season are Junior Tanner, Harold Bumgarner, Rod Holcomb and Louie Vendrell.

With the exception of Vendrell, a freshman who was critically injured in the Nyssa-Vale game Oct. 9, all are letterman, with Tanner the only two year man. Ted Keck is the only letterman left on the squad.

First Fire In Long Period Is Monday

The first fire alarm in several weeks called Nyssa volunteers to the Wyatt Smith home two miles north of town Monday morning after an overheated oil furnace threatened the home. Ralph Lawrence, assistant fire chief, said the fire was under control by the time the rural truck and tanker arrived, but that flames had been coming out of the register to result in smoke damage to the home and furnishings.

This fall has seen the smallest number of alarms in several years, Lawrence said, and most of them have been for minor fires. Grass and trash fires, usually prevalent during the fall months, have been at a minimum, he reported.

Nyssa Youth Is In Japanese Area

Dale P. Patterson, hospitalman in the U. S. Navy is now serving aboard a destroyer tender, USS Frontier, serving in the area around Japan. It was reported this week by the youth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Patterson of Nyssa. He has been in that area for the past three months.

A news release from the U. S. navy in last week's Journal erroneously stated that the Frontier is based at Great Lakes, Ill., but Patterson has never served on the east coast, it has been reported.

PARENTS OF A SON

Word was received here last week that Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Holman of Corvallis, former Nyssa residents, are parents of a son born October 15 in Corvallis.
