

Wins Music Honors

Word has been received from Stephens college in Missouri that Miss Donna Lee Wilson has won the two highest honors the college can offer to violin students. She has been awarded the Burrall Symphony scholarship and has been made assistant master of the Burrall Symphony orchestra, the highest position a student violinist can hold in this orchestra.

Miss Wilson, besides studying violin, organ, voice, orchestra, ensemble playing and theory of music along with academic subjects at the college, has the privilege of being one of two girls studying conducting under Edward Murphy, conductor of the Burrall Symphony orchestra. He is recognized as one of the leading younger conductors in the field.

Miss Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wilson of Nyssa, is a former pupil of Mrs. Herbert Fisher, Nyssa violinist, and of Lynn Lawrence of Corvallis.

Jones Appointed On Bonneville Council

Tom Jones, Union Pacific agent at Nyssa, has been appointed a member of the Bonneville Regional Advisory Council, it was announced last week. He expects to attend the next meeting to be held sometime in December tentatively set for Portland.

Eldridge W. Sinclair, executive secretary of the council, informed Jones that an offer is being made for him to serve on the research committee which studies problems of federal purchases and marketing of non-federal generation.
