Twenty-three Girls Honored At Stake Gold and Green Ball

The Nyssa stake MIA presented their annual Gold and Green ball last Saturday evening at the Nyssa stake house. The theme of the ball was "It's a Great Wide Wonderful World" and music was by the McGinnis orchestra.

The orchestra members were dressed in the Cuban motif and the refreshment table was decorated in a Hawaiian theme. The opening prayer was given by Leland Montgomery and Mrs. Ersal Beus was mistress of ceremonies.

The floor show was presented at 10:15 as a tribute to the queens of the ball. The presentation of the queens was first on the show and was followed by a tribute to them by President Arvel Child. Mrs. Bob Blamires of Vale then introduced the theme by reading the theme poem.

A ladies quartet which sang "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise." Members of the quartet were Mrs. Blaine Holliday, Mrs. Richard Christiansen, Mrs. Louis Wettstein, and Mrs. Eldon Jackman.

Dances in the show were "Dance of the Nations," in which each ward represented a nation, "Boys Rhythm Dance" in which the boys dressed as Uncle Sam, a modern interpretive dance and the dance of the queens.

The queens were: Nyssa 1st ward, Janell Haney; Nyssa second ward, Janice Williams, Vela Dee Poulson, Bonnie Mitchell, June Peterson, Darlene Anderson and Elsa Sanders; Ontario, Janet Hepworth, Velma Montgomery and Norma Ree Shurtleff; Owyhee, Avenelle Fenn, Julie Mitchell, Lois Garner and Venice Alred; Vale, Sandra Davenport, Carol Jarvis, Janet Whitaker, Helen Grigg, Betty Neilson, Norma Olund, Joy Saunders, Colleen Haueter, LaJuana Owens.

A rhinestone necklace was presented to each of the queens as a remembrance of the dance. The presentation was made by Pres. Fred Blacker and Pres. Milton Nelson.

Co-chairmen for the ball were Mrs. Ez Carr and Roland Maw. Dance directors were Mr. and Mrs. Roland Maw, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Neil Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Bentley Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Elfred Brower, Carl Hunter, Mrs. Keith Wooley and Erma Pearson.

A junior Gold and Green ball will be given Saturday evening for Beehives and Scouts, MIA Maids and Explorers.

Elizabeth L. Smith Marries Jas. Lissman

Miss Elizabeth Louise Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Smith became the bride of James Dayton Lissman in an impressive ceremony Friday evening, Jan. 15 at the Nazarene church.

The Rev. Robert Jackson officiated at the single ring ceremony as the couple stood before an arch of winter flowers.

Soloists were Mrs. Don Seward and Raymond Edwards. They were accompanied by Mrs. Dwight Seward, who also played the wedding marches.

Miss Elaine Lissman and Gearold Taylor of Ontario were candle lighters.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a full skirt and train. The lace yoke was edged with a dainty lace flounce and the gown had long pointed sleeves. She wore a net veil held in place by a crown of seed pearls and carried a white Bible, encased with an orchid surrounded by split carnations.

Mrs. Delbert E. Taylor was matron of honor. She wore an ice blue gown and carried a pink carnation nosegay. Miss Nadine Seward and Miss Margaret Bates were bridesmaids. Miss Seward wore a pastel pink gown and carried a blue carnation nosegay. Miss Bates' gown was pale blue and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Tiny flower girl and boy were Nila Rae Lissman and Robert Taylor. Clifford Mefford was best man and Wilbert I. Smith, Jack Seburn, Edward Smith and Delbert E. Taylor were ushers.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride wore a black and pink afternoon dress and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Seburn wore a purple frock and a yellow carnation corsage.

A reception was given following the ceremony in the Methodist church basement. Mrs. Don Wilson cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Roger Tucker poured the punch. In charge of the gifts were Janet Medlock, Joanne Martin, Ruth Herrman, Lois Wilson and Maryann Alford. Keitha Strassbaugh took care of the guest table and guest book at the church. The bride wore a grey suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage for her going away ensemble. Following a wedding trip into Idaho, the couple will make their home in Caldwell, where the groom is attending the College of Idaho. Both the bride and groom attended Nyssa schools.

Presbyterian Church Missionary Meeting

The January meeting of the Mary and Martha Missionary society of the Adrian Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Carl Hill on Thursday with Mrs. George Schiemer, co hostess. Mrs. Wesley Piercy, newly elected president of the society presided.

Mrs. John Packwood, literature superintendent, had charge of the program. Some of the books for the reading circle were briefly reviewed by members present. Mrs. Bennett gave a resume of the book, "Where the Sun" by Samuel H. Moffitt. Mrs. Francis Deffer gave a short report of the book, "Within These Borders" by John R. Seccord.

The program, as outlined for the coming year was presented by Mrs. John Auker, program chairman.

Mrs. Deffer, junior secretary, reported near 90 children were attending the Monday afternoon youth class and Little Light Bearers group.

The by-laws of the first organized Mary and Martha society in Kingman Colony were read and proved very interesting.
