Fern Lorraine Price Marries Orville Groves

Miss Fern Lorraine Price became the bride of Orville Marion Groves in a double ring ceremony at the Adrian United Presbyterian church Sunday evening February 7. The Reverend Henry Moore performed the ceremony before 175 guests.

The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white flowers and candelabra. Miss Loretta Vandewater sang "Because" and "Through The Years." She was accompanied by Miss Fay Hopkins. Mrs. Fred Deffer played the wedding marches. Candelights were Ira Price, Jr. and Earl Wilson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown of lace over satin with long pointed sleeves and a full skirt in train. She wore a single strand of pearls. Her illusion and lace veil was held in place with a coronet of tiny daisies centered with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and white roses tied with satin streamers and love knots.

Miss Bernardine Price, sister of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a pale green gown and carried a maid's nosegay with pink streamers. Mrs. Robert Corrigan and Mrs. James Cook and Mrs. Raymond Behrman were bridesmaids. They wore pale ballerina length gowns of yellow, blue and pink and carried nosegays of lavender, yellow and green. Marilyn Stephens was flower girl. She wore a yellow gown of taffeta and net.

Leslie Lund was best man. Ushers were Don Share, Kenneth Price and Raymond Behrman.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Price of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. John Groves of Parma.

The brides mother wore a brown two piece afternoon dress and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Groves wore a two piece dress and a pink rose corsage.

A reception honoring the couple was given following the ceremony in the church basement. The brides table was centered with a 4 tier wedding cake and white tapers and bouquets of flowers in candelabra at either end.

After the initial cut by the bride and groom, the wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Kenneth Price. Mrs. James Hedges poured the coffee and Mrs. Don Share served the punch. Miss Joyce Hedges had charge of the guest book.

Jo Ann Crocker, Amber McCoy, Nedra Budge and Delorus Reid had charge of the gift table. Others assisting with the reception were members of the 20-40 club of the church.

The bride graduated from Adrian high school and has been employed at the Payette telephone company. Mr. Groves attended Parma high school.

For her travel costume, the new Mrs. Groves chose a gray suit with red accessories. Following a wedding trip to Arizona and Nebraska, the couple will make their home in Parma, where the bridegroom is engaged in farming.

best investment

He ever made!

The investment is in automatic home laundry equipment. Naturally, she's pleased. She knows that these automatic machines — the washer and the dryer — take drudgery out of wash day — save her hours of time for other things.

Of all the work and time-saving electric appliances in the home, the automatic washer and dryer can serve her best.

No more scrubbing, rinsing, wringing. She simply puts the laundry in the automatic washer, sets the controls, adds soap. The automatic electric washer does the rest. It takes only a minute to transfer the washed, rinsed and damp-dried clothes to the electric dryer. It's so simple, so easy, the automatic way.

The automatic washer and dryer are fine investments in better living. See your dealer today.
