

Ceremony Unites Betty Bullard And Geo. Boyack

In an impressive evening ceremony March 26, Miss Betty Louise Bullard became the bride of George Boyack. The Rev. Hartzel Cobb officiated at the double ring ceremony in the First Christian church in Boise.

Preceding the rites, Byron Sherman of Arco, Idaho, sang "Through The Years" and "Because." Candlelighters were Lois and Norma Stewart of Boise. Spring flowers decorated the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of accordin pleated nylon tulle over white satin. The yoke and skirt interest were of imported lace. The gown was fashioned with long pointed sleeves and a stand-up collar. Her fingertip veil was held in place by an all-over lace cap with seed pearls. She carried an orchid and split carnations on a white Bible, a gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by her sister, Wilma Bullard, as maid of honor. She wore a lavender gown of taffeta and net and carried a nosegay of deep purple and yellow tulips.

Miss Joyce Blake was a bridesmaid. Her gown, fashioned identical to the one worn by the maid of honor, was orchid taffeta and net and she carried a bridesmaid's bouquet of yellow and orchid tulips.

Carole Boyack was the flower girl. She wore a yellow embroidered organza dress.

Dick Boyack, brother of the groom was best man. Donald Bullard, brother of the bride also attended the groom. Ray Wilder and Dennis Cutthroat were ushers.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bullard of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Boyack of Meridian. Mrs. Bullard wore a navy blue crepe afternoon dress with pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Boyack wore a navy dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

A reception for 275 guests was given following the ceremony in the church parlors. Janet Lakey had charge of the guest book.

Claydes Lewis, and Jean and Jeanine Grotteit had charge of the gift tables.

Following the initial cut of the three tier wedding cake by the bride and groom, it was cut and served by Mrs. John Zittercob. Mrs. Jack Zittercob, Mrs. Dale Lakey and Mrs. Theo Matherly, aunts of the bride. The punch was served by aunts of the groom, Mrs. Byron Sherman and Mrs. Victor Ellingford of Arco, Idaho, and Mrs. Frances Sherman of Pocatello.

The new Mrs. Boyack chose for her going away ensemble, a marine blue suit with pink accessories. Following a wedding trip to McCall, the couple will be at home at Alamosa Drive in Boise.

The bride is a 1950 graduate of Nyssa high school and is employed by the Mountain States Telephone Co. in Boise. The groom graduated from Meridian high school in 1950, spent two years in the United States Navy and is currently engaged in farming.
