Refreshments Ready in a Jiffy

Tall, cool fruit juice drinks are just right for warm weather get-togethers. Check your pantry to see that a supply of canned juice is on hand. The vitamin-rich fruit juices are good alone, or for variety add other ingredients such as ice cream and ginger ale for a sparkling treat. Here are some choice coolers that you can make in a jiffy.

Tot Party Special

Banana Mash: Mash 2 ripe bananas; add a 12-oz. can of apricot nectar, 1 cup milk and 1 tablespoon sugar. Stir until smooth. Serve chilled. Four to six servings.

Teenager Tasty

Fruity Sparkle: Mix together a No. 2 can pineapple juice, ½ teaspoon grated orange rind, juice of 1 orange, ½ cup sugar and an 8-oz. can fruit cocktail. Add a pint of soda water. Serve in tall glasses over ice cubes. Makes six cups.

Grown-Up Extra

Cranberry Almond Punch: Empty an 8-oz. can jellied cranberry sauce into a bowl. Beat until smooth. Gradually add a No. 2 can orange juice, beating. Add ½ teaspoon almond extract and a few drops red coloring. Chill. Makes 3 cups.

Everyone's Favorite

Fruit Float: Fill glasses half full with your favorite chilled canned fruit juice. Add a scoop of ice cream or sherbet. Finish filling glasses with chilled ginger ale.
