

Jean Grottveit Weds David Alexander

Mr. and Mrs. Harold David Alexander

Fern and mixed flowers formed the background setting for the wedding Friday at the Nyssa Methodist church of Miss Jean Grottveit and Harold David Alexander. The Rev. Robert Jackson of the Nazarene church performed the ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Alexander of Soap Lake, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. John Grottveit.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of traditional satin featuring a tiny Elizabethan collar with bodice and sleeves of Tudor Rose lace over satin. The full skirt was fashioned with sheer lace panels to the hem line of the cathedral train. Her fingertip length veil of French illusion was accented by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried an orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Jeanive Grottveit, of Boise, twin sister of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a gown of aqua blue taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of red rosebuds and daisies and wore a matching halo of flowers in her hair. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kerwin Ulrickson of Canton, So. Dakota, cousin of the bride and Miss Kathryn Fogleman of Portland, cousin of the groom. Their gowns were in pastel shades of pink and yellow. They carried colonial bouquets of daisies and forget-me-nots and wore matching halos.

Miss Janice Ulrickson and Miss Linda Wilson were flower girls. They wore gowns of aqua blue taffeta identical to the maid of honor. They carried baskets of rose petals with ribbon of pastel yellow and green.

Miss Joanne Martin and Miss Nadine Igo of Nyssa were candlelighters.

Miss Lorraine Van DeWater of Parma played the wedding marches and accompanied her sister, Loretta, who sang, "Oh, Promise Me", "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

A reception was given for the couple following the ceremony. Miss Dorothy Erwin had charge of the guest book and Miss Wilma Bullard, Miss Joyce Blake, Miss Colleen Bybee and Mrs. George Boyack presided over the gift tables.

Following the initial cut of the five tiered wedding cake by the bride and groom, the cake and punch were served by Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mrs. Hugh Tobler.

The new Mrs. Alexander chose a salmon pink summer sharkskin suit with white accessories for her travel costume. For their wedding trip, the couple motored through Oregon and Washington to Lake Cushman. They will be at home at 512 6th street, Warden, Wash., where the groom is employed.

The bride is a graduate of Nyssa high school and Nampa business college and has been employed for the past 2½ years at the Idaho Hospital service in Boise. The bridegroom attended Ontario high school and served three years in the United States Army.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gust Bjorneberg, Mr. and Mrs. Mons Grottveit of Beresford, So. Dak., Mrs. Kerwin Ulrickson, Janice and John of Canton, So. Dak., Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Titland, Janice and Allan of Idaho Falls, Miss Kathryn Fogleman of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. for Perfect Preserves...

Use Beet Sugar

Fortunate are we who live in the bountiful Snake River Valley. All summer long there's a variety of luscious fruits and berries on the market—the products of local farms. The preserving of jams and jellies and canning and freezing of whole fruit are the order of the day, for scrumptious eating next winter.

Beet Sugar helps bring out the natural flavor of fruits and berries, besides being a quick energy food in its own right. So when you buy sugar, be sure to make it Beet Sugar, a major Snake River Valley crop—sugar that is unsurpassed for sweetness, purity and fine quality.

The Beet Sugar you use means more dollars for local farmers, local pay-rolls and local prosperity. The dollars you spend for Beet Sugar are dollars you'll see again.
