

Days Gone By in Nyssa Community

From the Journal Files

10 Years Ago—August 10, 1944

The Nyssa Nursing home, recently purchased by the Lions club will be re-opened August 15. Mrs. Bessie McIntosh has been employed as superintendent. — Harry Shelton will open a dairy foods store in the building formerly owned by the highway department at the west entrance to the underpass. — Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Brown of Boise arrived in Adrian to operate the business at Holly Bros. store. — Bud Anderson of Nyssa was appointed by the county court as county watermaster. He will also be deputy assessor. — Pfc. Clyde E. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Adams, gunner on a B-17 was not hurt when the plane crashed at Sioux City, Ia. He parachuted safely from the plane. — An estimated 3000 persons attended the saddle horse sale and short impromptu rodeo held at the Bybee Livestock sale yard Sunday afternoon.

15 Years Ago—August 10, 1938

The Polar Cold Storage & Locker Plant opened this week. It is owned by L. T. Marshall. — Drs. Kerby and Maulding gave instruction on the use of the inhalator recently purchased. — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cottle and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Taylor spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Fahenstock at their mountain lodge, Pine Tops, near Idaho City. — Pulling a bicycle behind a horse proved dangerous sport for Bob Newgen when he was thrown from the bike and injured. — In preparation for the resumption of fall classes, the school house at Arcadia is being cleaned this week by some of the ladies of the community. — Oregon Trail Grange members are opposed to the establishment of a transient labor camp, it was brought out at a meeting of the grange this week.

20 Years Ago—August 9, 1934

To decide the second half of the Idaho-Oregon baseball series Emmett and Nyssa will cross bats in Nyssa Sunday. — The boom of a hay derrick struck H. J. Holmes a severe blow on the head, inflicting painful bruises and cuts. — To provide water for livestock in the dried up deserts of interior Malheur county, work is starting on the enlarging of springs and waterholes, in Jordan Valley, Westfall and Harper. — Five hundred lettuce thinners, most of them local people have signed up for work in the local lettuce fields. — H. R. Hatch, who was badly hurt when he fell from a haystack about 3 weeks ago is now able to be around on crutches. — The Payette Floral club had a picnic at the Barrett rock garden in Arcadia. — John Thompson of the Riverside auto park reports tourist business was doubled this season.

25 Years Ago—August 9, 1929

Nyssa will soon be working under a brand new city charter. It has been prepared by E. M. Blodgett, working in conjunction with the city officials, and is now in the hands of the printers. It will be published in full by the Gate City Journal and will make about 7 pages. — Arthur Boydell is building a new model stucco home south of Main street. — Mr. and Mrs. Van Twil formerly of Holland, who are traveling with the Orpheum circuit and giving concerts, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tensen. — Leona Zittercob returned from Portland where she has been specializing in a beauty course. She will start work in Nyssa soon. — A family reunion with 49 in attendance, was held at the P. Rucker home. The families had not been together for 25 years.

30 Years Ago—August 8, 1924

Potato digging has entirely ceased in this vicinity, owing to the low prices prevailing in the east. — J. A. Cole has opened a jewelry store in the east side of the Nyssa Pharmacy. — Mrs. Jake Bodmer was entangled in a rope while leading an unmanageable calf, sustaining injuries from which it will take several weeks to recover. — Mrs. Grant Rawson of Detroit, opened an up to date hemstitching and dress making parlor in the La Franz building. — Ross Parkinson is moving his shoe shop into the La Franz building and will add auto top repairing to his other lines. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Towne left on an auto trip to Yellowstone park. — Officers installed at the IOOF lodge were Dallas Duncan, noble grand; Cliff Tillman, vice grand and Sidney Burbridge, secretary.

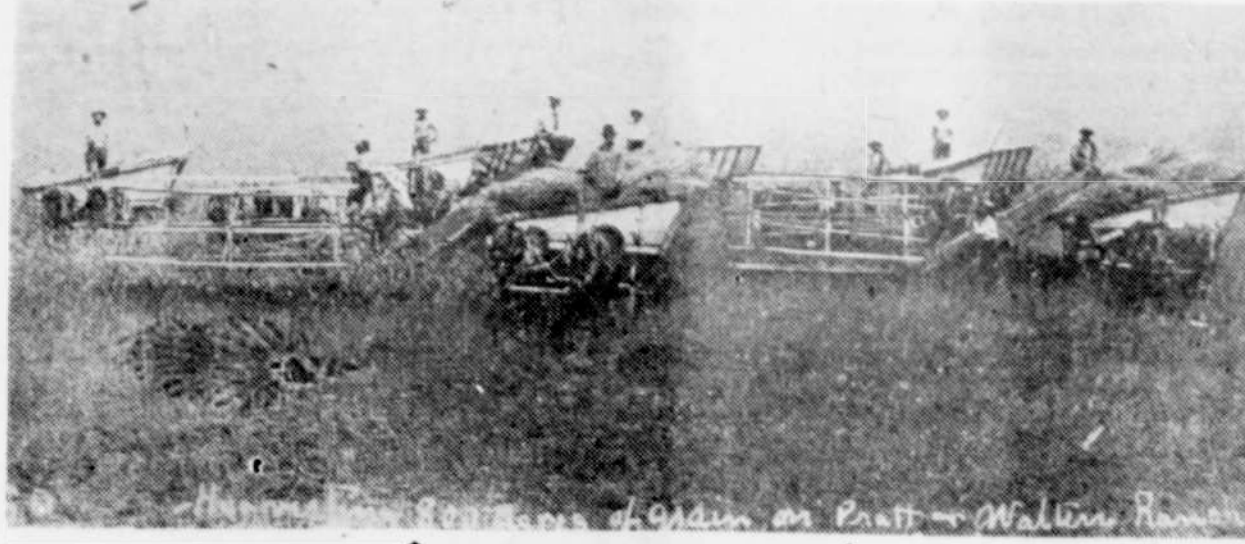

35 Years Ago—August 8, 1919

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boydell, accompanied by Mrs. Boydell's sister, Mrs. Ethel Howard of Butte, Mont., returned to Nyssa after a month's vacation to Yellowstone and other points in Montana. — About 200 tons of hay at $15 per ton was purchased in this vicinity for the farmers in Bannock county, Idaho. — Roy L. Deermore of Reading, Calif., and Jack Sheets of Nyssa, former army buddies had a surprise meeting when Mr. Deermore and family were passing through Nyssa. — Jack Sheets is moving his shop from the Nyssa garage on Main street to the Red building on Second street. — The Malheur Telephone Co. is anticipating an increase in rates; they are also desirous to discontinue the free service between Ontario and Nyssa.

40 Years Ago—August 6, 1914

A family picnic was held at the Pete Wilson home Sunday honoring Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. Tom Distler of Sacramento. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wilson and David, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson, Earl and Terry and George Reed. Mrs. Distler expects to leave for her home Wednesday. — George Reed, his daughters, Mrs. Tom Distler of Sacramento, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson

Remember When - - - ?

LONG BEFORE the Owyhee irrigation project brought an abundance of water to 110,000 acres of land in this valley, grain fields like this were part of the economy. This scene is a crew harvesting 800 acres of grain on the Pratt and Waltern ranch on the Adrian bench in 1912. According to records of Bob Thompson, from whose collection this picture was taken.

Sunset Valley

Lois Council
Phone 2439

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kalbach and family of Leota, Kan., visited at the home of her brother, the James Langleys from Tuesday evening to Thursday morning. They had been in California visiting relatives and are on their way back to Kansas.

Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kalbach and family, James Langley and Keith and Rex Langley were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hobson.

Jimmy, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. James Langley underwent an operation on his eyes in Boise Wednesday. They brought him home Saturday and he is doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hobson attended the camp meeting of the Church of the Nazarene in Nampa Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schultz and family of Dead Ox Flat were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elver Nielsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Keller and Phillip were Sunday dinner guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Council.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Olsen and Mr. and Mrs. Wessley Olsen returned from Tillamook, Oreg., Wednesday where they were called by the passing away of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Ed Keller, a week ago Friday.

A family picnic was held at the Pete Wilson home Sunday honoring Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. Tom Distler of Sacramento. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wilson and David, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson, Earl and Terry and George Reed. Mrs. Distler expects to leave for her home Wednesday.

George Reed, his daughters, Mrs. Tom Distler of Sacramento, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson

CUB SCOUTS HAVE SWIMMING PARTY

Cub Scouts of Den 3 were guests at the Caldwell swimming pool Monday afternoon when their Den Mothers, Mrs. Wayne Chesnut and Mrs. Rolland Laurance rewarded them for perfect attendance at their pack meetings for the past month.

went on a camping and fishing trip on the Little Malheur, Tuesday and Wednesday. They caught several trout.

Coleen and Keith Farr who have been visiting their aunts, Mrs. Leland Montgomery and Mrs. Lorin Munn left for their home in Taylor, Utah, Sunday.

The Sunset Valley Auxiliary is to meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Schweizer August 1.

Mrs. Frank Perko and Mrs. Chas. Schweizer went to Ontario Sunday evening to see the show "The Gladiators."

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Knottingham of Ontario, were dinner guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Council Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Astoreca went to the Hope hall near Vale to the dance Saturday evening. The String Busters were the featured band.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson of Roswell were Sunday dinner guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wilson.

The Harley Wilsons are remodeling and enlarging their house.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reed took their son, Russell to the clinic in Portland Wednesday and returned home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Day of Adrian visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Harold Robbins Sunday evening.

Mrs. Kenneth Lorenson and her aunt, Mrs. Bernice Steele attended a meeting Tuesday at the Lew Pratt home for Democrat women. They met Mrs. Ullman, wife of the congress candidate.

Your Library

Fiction heads the list of books going into circulation on Saturday, July 31, at the Malheur County Library.

The Bad Seed, by William Campbell (writing under the name of William March) is a candidate for the best-seller list, with its plot of the problem confronting Christine Penmark when she discovers that her young daughter is a murderer.

Kenneth Dodson's best-seller, Away All Boats, tells the life story of the attack transport "Belinda" and its part in task-force movements, beachhead assaults, and air attacks in the Pacific War.

Dark Enchantment, is the story of a young English girl gone to live in a village of the Alps Maritimes where she comes to realize the dominating power of a woman there who deals in superstitions and pagan rites. Dorothy Macardie, author of The Uninvited, is the writer.

A novel of love and intrigue set in the Budapest of 1941 is A Place to Stand, by Ann Bridge. Hope Kirkland, daughter of an American business man, becomes involved and falls into the Nazis' hands through her attempts to aid a Polish refugee trying to escape from Hungary.

The Chain in the Heart, by Hubert Creekmore tells of three generations of a Negro family in a small Southern town, showing their gradual emergence into a state of personal inner freedom.

Sandy, in Love from Sandy, by Elwynne Berger, is a Vassar girl from New York state spending her junior year studying in England and being impressed by a young Rhodes scholar. She tells her story by means of love letters to her parents.

A frontier novel set in Washington state is Gold Mountain, by Charlotte Paul. In it a young school teacher establishes a school and a place for herself among the wilderness families, pitted against the man whose wealth and strength rules the valley.

Last Race, by Jon White is the story of Peter Wellington's career in auto racing. He married Pat at the height of his career, but when he began losing races, Pat realized that he was appar-

by the young girls. The girls won by one point, so the ladies challenged them to a game this coming Tuesday.

CHILD BREAKS COLLAR BONE

Jeanne McEwen, 22 month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville McEwen fell Friday afternoon while playing and broke her collar bone. Miss McEwen, proud owner of a tiny brace, is in fine condition.

ently also losing a contest within himself.

Ruth Mitchell writes the life story of General Billy Mitchell in My Brother Bill. Mitchell was court-martialed for advocating a separate Air Force for the army which has since become a reality.

A detective of Scotland Yard, retells the stories of some of his famous cases during twenty-eight years of service, in Fabian of the Yard.

Moments of Personal Discovery, edited by R. M. MacIver, is the description by Lyman Bryson, Margaret Mead, Harry Emerson Fosdick, Mordecai Kaplan, and others, of moments of experience where each felt a clearer sense of direction and some vision of a goal for the future.

Norma Cutts and Nicholas Moseley tell parents how to make the most of their children's intelligence in Bright Children. It discusses questions such as skipping a grade in school, deciding between a public or a private school, discipline, and looking toward a vocation.

The Meaning of Philosophy, by Joseph Brennan surveys the problems of philosophy and the opinions of philosophers.

An outline of the history of cooperative thought by the former executive secretary of the Cooperative League is Eugene Bowen's, The Cooperative Road to Abundance.

Dr. John Easley
Optometrist
Ontario, Ore.
Phone Enterprise 401
(No toll charge)

FOR DIFFICULT TV TROUBLES

C. VAUN HUNT

Graduate Coyne Electrical School of Chicago

One Year Installation and Field Service with Sears Robuck Co. of Boise

OWYHEE GROCERY
Dial 2150

MEMO: to the Handyman Trying to fix up the home or farm yourself? For top notch building & repair materials see... Boise Payette.

SPECIAL!	DEVOE 1 COAT HOUSE PAINT	$6.55 Gal.
	Reg. $7.56 NOW
1 COAT ODORLESS Flat WALL ENAMEL	Gal.	$5.45
	Qt.	$1.75
CEDAR SHAKES	Pre Stained	Bdle. $7.00
Linoleum Floor Tile	9x9 Ass't Colors	ea. 14¢

Miroplas Wall Tile Atlas Power Tools
Birch Doors Comet Windows

This Week Only!!! PABCO DOUBLE COVER PLATINUM GRAY ROOF SHINGLES 230 lbs. Per Square "Do It Yourself" And Save More $12

Also...home plans and financing! Boise Payette LUMBER COMPANY
Phone 2830 Nyssa, Oregon

Dr. Geo. E. Cobern
OPTOMETRIST
220 Main Street Phone 6649
Nyssa, Ore.

REFIGERATION REPAIR
(FREON UNITS ONLY)
HERB'S RADIO SERVICE
Dial 2118 Nyssa, Oregon

"You write your own money, don't you, Mommy!"

Your checking account at First National is the safest and most convenient way to handle money. Your checks give you a legal record of payment, and you do not risk the loss of cash. Open a checking account at First National, where you get your name and address printed free on all regular checking account checks.

OPEN 10 TO 5
Monday through Saturday

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PORTLAND
NYSSA BRANCH

Mr. Farmer!
BUY FROM US and SAVE—Money and Time

BALING TWINE
Brantford 375-lb. High Test $10.45
3% Discount for Cash—1 or 1000 Bales

CORBEL BALING TWINE
230 Feet per Pound. 325-lb. Tested
A uniform Twine which will work in Any Baler. Users are Reporting from 480 to 517 Bales of Hay per Bale of Twine. If YOU are Getting LESS from the Twine you are Using, it will PAY YOU to Try a Bale.

Priced $9.85
Less 3% for Cash .30
TOTAL PRICE FOR CASH $9.55

BAILING WIRE
No. 6500 for Moline, International and Late New Holland, 100-lb. Bales $11.50
3% Discount for Cash
You can buy on time with approved credit.

B & M EQUIPMENT CO.
Phone 2240 Nyssa