Tobler's Beats Colored Ghosts

The softball team from Tobler's Feed and Fuel met and vanquished the famous touring Iowa Colored Ghosts in a well played game at the Nyssa rodeo grounds Thursday.

In spite of the press clippings of the Colored Ghosts the Nyssa team led all the way and the game ended with a score of 11-6 in favor of Tobler's. The Ghosts were outplayed and were able to get only 4 hits during the game while Tobler's got 15.

The mainstay of the visiting team was their comical antics and wisecracks during the game and their slow motion playing and shadow ball afterwards.

Attend Services

Miss Mary Alice Mally of Pittsburg, Penn., and Mrs. John Kelly of Ogden, who are visiting in Nyssa with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mally, went to Ogden last week to attend funeral services of Judge James Albert Howell.
