Wilma Bullard, Marvin Jensen Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Jensen

The First Christian church in Boise was the scene of the wedding of Miss Wilma Bullard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bullard of Nyssa and Marvin L. Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jensen of Boise. The double ring ceremony, an event of August 7, was performed by the Rev. Hartzell Cobb.

The church was decorated with orchid and white gladiolus and yellow daisies. Soloist was Mrs. Gordon Eichman. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ray Williams, who also played the bridal music.

Miss Eileen Jensen, sister of the groom and Miss Norma Stewart were candlelighters. They wore matching floor length gowns of true blue organdy.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowning in a floor length model of white satin with French over tulle. The bodice featured a portrait neckline and lace sleeves, pointed at the wrists. The floor length skirt featured a pleated tulle panel in front to accent the French lace and satin in the skirt. She wore a single strand of pearls, and a fingertip veil, edged in lace and held in place by an open work crown. She carried an orchid and white stephanotis on a white Bible.

Mrs. George Boyack, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Boyack wore a gown of orchid organdy and carried yellow daisies with green ribbon.

Miss Joyce Blake, in mist green organdy was bridesmaid. She carried yellow daisies with orchid ribbon. Miss Vicki Schoen was flower girl. Miss Schoen wore a floor length gown of yellow organdy.

Stanley Matlock was best man and Donald Bullard, William Tonkin and George Boyack were ushers.

Mrs. Bullard chose a light aqua all over lace dress for her daughter's wedding. She wore a pink carnation corsage.

Mrs. Jensen wore a blue silk dress with a red carnation corsage.

A reception was given to honor the couple following the ceremony in the church reception rooms. The bride's table was centered with a four tier wedding cake and white tapers. Serving were Mrs. John Zittercob, Mrs. Theo Matherly and Mrs. Dale Lakey, aunts of the bride and Mrs. Theo Fisher, an aunt of the groom. Mrs. Stowell B. Dudley, Jr. and Mrs. R. M. Church, aunts of the groom, poured.

Miss Lois Stewart had charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Jensen chose a grey suit dress with white accessories for her travel ensemble. Following a honeymoon trip to Payette Lakes, the couple will make their home in Boise, where the groom is employed by the Boise Floral Co.

The bride, a graduate of the Ontario high school and Multnomah school of the Bible, is employed by the Mountain States Telephone Co. The groom is a graduate of Boise high school and served three years in the United States Army.

Out-of-state guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Church of Wenatchee, Wash.
