

Cubs and Scouts Meet In Adrian

Pack meeting for the cub scouts was held Tuesday night at the United Presbyterian Community church in Adrian. A film on the Hawaiian Islands was shown. Those present decided to have a cooked foods sale Saturday, Oct. 16, at 11 a. m. in Adrian, all parents of the cubs and others interested in scouts are asked to donate to the sale. The proceeds will be used to finance the cubs.

David Hill from Newell Heights received his lion badge and a gold and silver arrow.

The scout committeemen and interested persons met Friday evening to plan the drive to raise money for the Adrian Boy Scouts. Jed Lewis from the Ore-Ida council was present to help plan the drive.

The drive will be conducted this week in Adrian and surrounding areas. Jake Borge and Durlin Hammon, committeemen from Newell Heights, attended the meeting.

Seven New Books On Library Shelves

Seven new books are now on the shelves at the Nyssa Public Library, said Mrs. Desmond Jones, librarian, today. The books, she said, are ready to be taken out.

The books: "The Egyptian" by Waltari; "Love Is Eternal" by Stone; "Away All Boats" by Dodson; "The Song of Ruth" by Slaughter; "Not As A Stranger" by Thompson; "The Iron Maiden" by Lanham; and "Popular Mechanics Picture History of American Transportation."

"The Egyptian" has recently been filmed in cinemascope. "The Song of Ruth" and "Not As A Stranger" are currently on the nation's best-seller lists.

Mrs. William Schoen left Thursday for Walla Walla to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jhelmer Schoen.

What's Doing In The Nyssa Grade School

The first grade children of Miss Emma Zwemke's and Mrs. Gladys Engelhardt's rooms had the experience of churning some cream and watching the process of butter being made.

The children were served buttermilk and buttered crackers.

Brian Hendricks entered Miss Eva Boydell's third grade from Ontario this week.

Science pictures this week were exceptionally good and were "Alaska's Silver Millions" and "How Animals Protect Themselves." Both were instructional and enjoyable for the third graders.

Miss Virginia Voigt's fifth grade has elected officers for their club. Cheryl Zesiger is president; Marilyn Hickman, vice president; Hue Byles, secretary; Carolyn Schilling, assistant secretary; Roger Barnes, program chairman.

The name chosen was the Good Citizen club. Meetings will be held once a month. Programs will be planned for each meeting.

Mrs. Ruth Looney's sixth graders are studying weather for science and have made weather charts for October. Two boys, Jack Dail and William Wahlert, visited the reclamation office and the sugar factory and drew a diagram of the apparatus used for keeping weather reports. Jack and William explained these diagrams to the class, telling how the maximum and minimum temperatures are kept for each day and the precipitation of each day is recorded.
