

Nyssa Men In The Service

New Looey Home On Army Leave

Newell Heights — Don Newbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newbell of Newell Heights and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrison of Nyssa and Mrs. Nellie Newbell, is on an 18-day furlough from the US Army Air Force.

Newbell graduated on Oct. 13 from the training course at Laredo, Tex. and received his commission as second lieutenant. He will report back to Del Rio, Tex. after his leave to take an advanced training course.

His mother flew to Laredo to attend his graduation and then came home with him by automobile. He is a graduate of Boise Junior College and Adrian Union high school.

PARENTS OF DAUGHTER

A/2c and Mrs. James O. Stephen have a daughter, Debbie Ann, born Sept. 29 at the Malheur Memorial hospital. A/2c Stephen is stationed in Japan and Mrs. Stephen is living in Nyssa.

Debbie Ann has one sister, Cathy Lynn.

CPL. KESLER DISCHARGED

Cpl. C. R. Kesler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kesler, arrived home Wednesday from Korea where he had served with the United States Army for the past 16 months. Kesler entered the service in October, 1952.

COMPLETES BASIC TRAINING

A/3c Don Poulson has finished his basic training at San Antonio, Texas, where he passed tests in the upper third of his class, which enables him to take further training in accounting.

He is now stationed at Lake Charles, La.

Poulson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Poulson.

Adrian High Has Gridiron Win And Homecoming Dance

Adrian — The Adrian high school football team tangled recently with the gridder from Middleton (Idaho) high—and clobbered the opposition 12 to zero.

The game was the annual homecoming tussle. A dance was held the same evening.

At half-time during the game, Amber McCoy was crowned homecoming queen. The queen and her attendants had been chosen by popular votes from the ranks of the senior girls. Karen McKinley and Bernadine Price were attendants.

The homecoming dance, sponsored by the Pep club, was held in the recreation room of the elementary school.

The Men of Song

The first concert of the 1954-55 season in the Malheur Community Concert series will be held in the Ontario High school auditorium Tuesday, Oct. 26, at 8 p. m. The Men of Song will be the opening attraction.

This versatile group has had seven years experience on the concert stage with numerous radio and television appearances. On last season's tour the group sang in the White House for President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

Among the radio and TV shows they have appeared on have been The Show of Shows, the Fred Allen Show, and Caravan of Stars.

Joe Campbell, tenor, is a graduate of Julliard and Columbia University schools of music, and has appeared with leading symphony orchestras.

Carl Honzak, tenor, has sung solo appearances with the Chicago Symphony and the Chicago Opera Association. He is a graduate of the Univ. of Chicago.

Services In Salt Lake For Former Nyssan

Mrs. S. S. Burbidge left Monday evening for Salt Lake City, to attend funeral services for her aunt, Mrs. M. P. Robertson, who died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dewey Ray in Salt Lake City.

Funeral services will be conducted today, (Thursday) at Desert Chapel for Mrs. Robertson, a former Nyssa resident.

Mrs. Elmer Plache of Racine, Wis. arrived in Nyssa Monday evening with Mrs. Harry Bolles for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Bolles and her husband were called to Madison, Wis., two weeks ago by the illness of Mr. Bolles' mother, Mrs. Lewis Bolles.

Adrian Hockey Team Defeated In Tussle

Adrian — GAA members from Adrian Union high school went to Caldwell recently to play hockey with the girls' team from the College of Idaho—and lost by a 2 to 1 score. The Adrian team members were accompanied by the physical education teacher, Miss Joyce Dean.

After the game, the winning team, the College of Idaho squad, said publicly that the Adrian team was the best high school team they have ever played.

Mrs. R. D. McKinley, Mrs. Durlin Hammon and Mrs. Claude Skinner drove cars; Henry Reuter drove the bus. Girls from Newell Heights who participated were Karen McKinley, Kaye Hammon, Connie Montgomery, Margaret Butler, Calne Fenn, Louise Hutchinson and Francene Peterson.

The high school p.e. frosh and soph girls hockey team has played the junior and senior girls hockey team twice. Both games were won by the junior and senior girls team.
