The Newest News In Baking Is Light Chocolate Cake

Everybody has a recipe for dark chocolate cake. But Light Chocolate Cake? That's different. It's so new and delicious, you'll want the recipe so you can be the first to have it in your neighborhood.

Light Chocolate Cake has the flavor that America favors in chocolate, the flavor of semi-sweet chocolate. To make Light Chocolate Cake, use the very same morsels of semi-sweet chocolate that make America's favorite Chocolate Crunch Cookies, and capture the same delicious flavor in melted form. Use semi-sweet chocolate morsels, whole to make that attractive beading round the edge of the white frosting.

A cake that plans for things, it requires 2 egg yolks and 1 whole egg for the batter, thus leaving 2 egg whites to make the Seven Minute Frosting. The texture of this cake is just as light as the newer chocolate flavor. You'll be a better cook with the help of this tested recipe for the newest thing in baking.

Light Chocolate Cake

- |  |                          |
|--|--------------------------|
| 1 package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate morsels | 2 cups sifted cake flour |
| 3/4 cup butter or margarine                    | 1/2 teaspoon baking soda |
| 1 cup sugar                                    | 1 teaspoon baking powder |
| 2 egg yolks                                    | 1 teaspoon salt          |
| 1 whole egg                                    | 1 cup milk               |

Melt semi-sweet chocolate morsels over hot, not boiling water. Cream butter; add sugar gradually, creaming thoroughly. Add egg yolks and whole eggs one at a time, beating well. Sift together flour, baking soda, baking powder and salt. Add alternately to creamed mixture with milk. Stir in melted morsels. Turn into 2 8-inch greased pans, 2 inches deep. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 35 minutes. Cool. Frost with Seven Minute or Boiled Frosting; garnish with additional semi-sweet chocolate morsels.

YIELD: 1 8-inch cake.

Nyssa Wins First B-Squad Contest

(Nyssa High School Bulldog)

For the second time in a row the first quarter of B-Pups football game proved disastrous but this time it was the B-Pups dealing out the punishment.

Co-captains Dirk Rinehart and Jerry Matsunaga met at midfield and won the toss so they elected to receive. The kickoff went to Pond who took the ball on about the 30 yard line and handed off to Schenk who carried the ball up the sideline for the first Nyssa touchdown. Rinehart carried for the conversion. Nyssa kicked to Weiser but the Wolverines failed to get an offensive drive started and were forced to kick. Nyssa carried the ball 30 yards on two plays but lost the ball on a fumble. Weiser was forced to punt again, this time from deep in their own territory. Nyssa fullback, Joe Sanders took the ball on about the 25 and carried the ball through the middle of the Weiser team for the second Nyssa touchdown. Sanders also carried the conversion. Our last touchdown in the first quarter came after Weiser had again lost the ball on downs. Three plays later Schenk took the ball on an end sweep for the touchdown. He also carried the conversion.

Neither team was able to threaten in the second quarter. Our last scores were made in the third period on pass plays from Rinehart to Talbot and Schenk. Sanders and Savage carried the conversions.

The fourth quarter was a replica of the second with neither team being able to push over a score. The final score Nyssa 35 Weiser 0.

Baby Tigers Slip By Nyssa 7 to 0

(Nyssa High School Bulldog)

Captains Smith and Savage won the toss and elected to receive.

On the kick off the B-pups made a hand off, and ran it back to their own 40. Nyssa then fumbled on the second down, Ontario recovered and worked their way to the Nyssa five yard line where they were held for four downs.

The Nyssa boys then took over and they also were held and punted on the fourth down. The quarter ended with Ontario in possession and the score 0 to 0. In the second quarter neither team could make much headway, but Nyssa was slowly advancing on the Ontario goal line when the period ended.

The third quarter opened with Schenk of Nyssa kicking off to Ontario. The ball went over the goal line and out of bounds so Ontario took it on the 20 yard line. The rest of the quarter was spent with first one side then the other moving away then being stopped by the other.

The quarter ended with the B-pups on the Ontario 8 yard line. The first play of the fourth quarter Nyssa fumbled, Ontario took over but was held and had to punt.

The B-pups took over and worked to the 50 yard line where they fumbled again.

This time there was no stopping the baby Tigers. They took over and after three first downs Tiddwell of Ontario crashed over the right side for a touchdown. On the try for the extra point Ontario received an off sides penalty and were thrown for a loss but came back to make the extra point on the third down. The game ended with the score Ontario 7, Nyssa 0.

HERE'S WHY:

He believes that the legislative emphasis should be on home rule rather than on increasing bureaucratic control, and he opposes the trend toward a centralized state government.

He believes that there should be no increase in state spending which would result in a state property tax.

He believes that the industrial and irrigational interests of Eastern Oregon must be safeguarded in any Snake river development program which may be undertaken.

He believes that the federal plan of state legislative reapportionment is the best method of assuring the representation essential to good government in Oregon.
