Adrian Presbyterian Church Notes

The Mary and Martha Missionary society met with Mrs. Dyre Roberts Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Athol Sayre was assistant hostess. Mrs. Sayre gave the devotions, the theme being "Christ, the Light." Mrs. Lynn Hurst presented the prayer cycle on the Christian home and the church among the Negro people. Mrs. Edna Cowling was in charge of the program for the afternoon at which time Rev. Henry Moore spoke on temperance. A business meeting followed, after which refreshments were served to the 12 ladies present.

The Mary and Martha society ladies served lunch at the Edwards farm sale Friday.

During the 11 o'clock church service on Sunday, a film, entitled "Your Church and Children," will be shown. The fifth grade Sunday school class will enjoy a class party in the church basement on Saturday night at 7:30 p. m.

FORMER NYSSAN HURT

A former resident of Nyssa, Howard Buterbaugh, now of Payette, was injured seriously in an automobile accident Friday morning. Two cars met head-on in a collision 12 miles north of Ontario at 1:55 a. m. Buterbaugh was driving one of the cars involved. All told, four men were injured and taken to the Weiser hospital. One man was later released—but hospital authorities will make no comment on the condition of the other three. Buterbaugh is 45.

Harold and Polly Kurtz. The idea is to send at least one letter marked "To be opened on board ship." This week the letters should be addressed to the following address: The Rev. and Mrs. Harold Kurtz, 153 Lakeside Street, New Concord, Ohio.

The 20-40 club is having an Armistice Day breakfast at 9 a. m. at the church Nov. 11. There will be a small charge for the breakfast, the proceeds to go towards helping to pay for the new project of small tables and chairs for the primary Sunday school classes, which the club is sponsoring.

Notes From The Nyssa Faith Lutheran Church

The Rev. John L. Briehl returned last Friday from the semi-annual three day conference, held this fall at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Colville, Wash. The theme of the conference was "The Fruits of Forgiveness — Peace! Joy! Love! and Hope!" Forty-eight pastors of the eastern area of the Northwestern District of the American Lutheran church were in attendance.

Sunday, Oct. 31, Faith Lutheran church will receive new members. Those unbaptized will be received through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism, others through confirmation or transfer; all by a confession of faith.

A potluck dinner in honor of the new members will follow the morning services.

Faith Lutheran church will also observe on Oct. 31, Reformation Sunday with special services beginning in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

October 31 has come to be regarded as the birthday of the Protestant Reformation. Faith Lutheran church will observe this day of the nailing of the 95 sentences on the door of the Castle church of Wittenberg by Martin Luther in 1517 with special services. They will begin Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Elmore Carlson, Trinity Lutheran church, Nampa, will present the Reformation message. The public is very cordially invited to these services.

Owyhee Community Church News

On Thursday night at 8 o'clock there will be a Halloween party for the young people at the church.

Thirteen ladies met at the home of Mrs. Ed Corefield for the Women's Missionary group of the church. The group planned some activities and then finished the meeting by mending clothing for the children's orphanage, followed by refreshments by the hostess. The next meeting of the group will be on Nov. 17 at the home of Mrs. Grover Cooper.

Some 106 people enjoyed the potluck dinner at the church last Friday evening and the showing of a 60 minute picture, "Power of God." The picture series planned could not be obtained this month.

Rev. Allen McAnlis, missionary under the Iran Interior Mission, showed colored pictures of his work in Iran. Some 86 people enjoyed his thorough talk on the work being done in the children's orphanage and of the present condition of the land.

Rev. Kenneth Himple will speak on "Communism and Its Danger" at the joint rally of the Christian churches held this Sunday at the Christian church at Ontario.

Choir practice will start Nov. 4 at 8 p. m. at the church, under the direction of Mrs. Ed Case. Both young people and adults are urged to come to the practices.
