

Temple Ceremony Unites Mr. and Mrs. Owen Froerer; Reception Given

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Froerer

—Photo by Harano

Miss Colleen Bybee and Owen G. Froerer exchanged wedding vows and rings November 29 in a wedding ceremony in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Robert I. Burton, president of the Temple officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Bybee of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Owen J. Froerer of Vale are parents of the bridegroom.

For her wedding, the bride was gowned in white Chantilly lace over net and satin. The Elizabethian collar was graced by a single strand of pearls, and the skirt was fashioned with three tiers of lace. Her fingertip illusion veil was edged with Chantilly lace and held by a crown of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a heart shaped bouquet of red carnations centered with a white orchid.

Following the wedding, the new Mr. and Mrs. Froerer left for a wedding trip to Southern Utah. Mrs. Froerer chose a brown suit and avocado green shoes and bag for her travel costume.

In the evening of December 10, Mr. and Mrs. Froerer were guests at a wedding reception and dance at the Nyssa LDS stake house recreation hall, given by the bride's parents.

Receiving guests were the bride and bridegroom, and their parents. Miss Claudina Willson was maid of honor. She wore a blue nylon net gown fashioned over taffeta and carried a maid's nosegay. Mrs. Jay Bybee was attending matron and Miss Ruth Froerer. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor in shaded blues, and carried nosegays.

Pamela Bybee, niece of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid. She wore an iced blue gown and carried pink rosebuds and carnations. She was escorted by Ronald Froerer, brother of the bridegroom, Larry Hauter of Vale

Christmas Dinner Given For Rebekahs, IOOF

Rebekahs and Odd Fellows were guests at a Christmas party Tuesday evening at the IOOF hall. Places were laid for 60 guests at the potluck dinner, which was served under the direction of Mrs. Ida Walters and Mrs. Tom Johnson. Mrs. Walters and Mrs. Johnson also decorated the tables.

Mrs. Owen Gann had charge of the program and Mrs. Minnie Leuck decorated the Christmas tree and the hall.

Following the program, a gift exchange was held, under the direction of Mrs. John Reeves and Mrs. Helmer Ostrom.

was bestman.

Mrs. Bybee, mother of the bride, received guests in a rose lace over satin dress. Her corsage was pink rosebuds and red carnations. Mrs. Froerer wore a pink brocaded faille dress and pink rosebud and a white gardenia corsage.

Miss Carol Froerer had charge of the guest book and presiding at the gift table was Mrs. Lamont Fife, assisted by Karren Fife, Carilee Kesler, Karen Bybee and Judy Bingham.

D. O. Bybee was MC for the program given during intermission. Mrs. Ray Bybee sang "I'll Give My Heart To You," Carilee Kesler gave a reading, Mrs. Carlos Loveland sang "Whither Thou Goest," Hugh Tobler sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Friends" and Mrs. D. O. Bybee gave a reading.

Mrs. Wayne Barker and Mrs. Ray Bybee served punch from a bowl sunk in a huge cube of ice and decorated with holly sprigs. Mrs. W. A. Bybee and Mrs. Vibert Kesler cut and served the five tier wedding cake. The cake was decorated in shades of pink and white and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Out-of-state guests for the reception included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. H. E. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Barker and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Jensen of Ogden; Mrs. Ray Bybee of Salt Lake City and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Jensen and Miss Claudina Willson of Boise.

The bride graduated from Nyssa high school, and has been employed for the past two and one half years in Boise.

The bridegroom has just been discharged from service after spending 15 months with the U. S. Army in Korea. They plan to make their home near Nyssa, where the bridegroom will engage in farming.

M Men, Gleaners Have Fireside

Nanette Bybee was hostess to M Men and Gleaners of the Owyhee second ward MIA for their fireside meeting Sunday evening. Bouquets of rare oriental flowers decorated the Bybee home.

Spencer Beus of Provo, Utah, was the speaker for the evening, and musical numbers were presented by Mrs. D. O. Bybee, who played an organ solo and Laura Schenk and Amy Lewis, who played a violin duet.

Karma Kesler was in charge of the program and Mrs. Ruth Palmer is group leader. Refreshments were served to thirty-one guests.

Dinner Honors

Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. William Wahler were Sunday evening dinner guests at the Nixon Cafe in Boise on the occasion of the ninth wedding anniversary of the Jacksons.

Former Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Grover, of Fossil, Ore., former Nyssa residents, spent the Christmas weekend with Mrs. Grover's mother, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Whitlock, and with other relatives and friends.

Here From Bremerton

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson and Robbie of Bremerton, Wash., arrived Friday to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. George Naylor, Mrs. Wilson's parents, and with other relatives and friends. They will return to their home Sunday.

Guests In Emmett

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Adams spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Dean Jarmin at Emmett.

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Cook of Payette were dinner guests Friday evening of Mrs. Angie Cook.

Sugar Factory Employees Have Christmas Dinner

The Payette Country club was the scene of the Sugar Factory Christmas party and dinner last Tuesday evening.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zobell, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pleuard, Mrs. Don Oldemeyer, Dr. and Mrs. George Rush, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Low, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heldt, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nicholson, Everett Heldt, Mrs. Jack Walters, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zittercob and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilson.

The office force from the Factory had their gift exchange Friday afternoon at the Nyssa office. Cake and coffee were served.

Wilson Home Scene

Of Turkey Dinner

Members of the Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bridge club were guests at a no host turkey dinner Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Wilson.

Dr. and Mrs. John Olsen and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Wyckoff were guests. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Farmer were prize winners.

Jones' Here For Holidays

Lt. and Mrs. Charles Jones were guests this week of Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irl Nolan. They left Thursday to spend some time on the coast and Lt. Jones will report January 17 to Texas for further duty with the United States Army.

Mrs. Applegate Hostess

Mrs. Robert Applegate entertained at three tables of bridge Monday afternoon. Mrs. Lloyd Wilson, Mrs. Dick Tensen and Mrs. Duane Alters were prize winners.

Dinner Guests

Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Crisp were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leaper and Bill of Fruitland and Luanna Pond and Kaye Manwill of Boise.

Social Notes

Girl Scouts Have Christmas Party

Jan Rinehart, Ann Stringer, Betty Glascock, Mary K. Olsen, Jean Baker, Gloria Medina, Lucile White, Sharon Newman and Bonnie House were guests Thursday afternoon when members of the Girl Scout troop No. 6 had their Christmas party.

The girls spent an informal afternoon and exchanged gifts.

Mrs. Tobler's Group

Has Party Thursday

Members of Mrs. Lloyd Tobler's kindergarten had their Christmas party Thursday morning, with a Christmas program for their mothers.

Santa Claus was a guest of the group and a gift exchange was held. Mrs. Tobler served refreshments.

Wednesday Night Club

Has Christmas Party

Mrs. Herb Fisher was hostess to members of the Wednesday night bridge club for their annual Christmas party and gift exchange at her home.

Mrs. Harry Miner won first prize and Mrs. Rex Voeller won the traveling prize.

Guests From Idaho

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Larson and family of Hansen, Ida, visited Wednesday night in Nyssa with Dr. J. J. Sarazin, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tensen. Dr. Sarazin left with the Larsons Thursday for Portland to spend Christmas with Dr. and Mrs. Clare Peterson and David Sarazin.

Dinner Guests Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holman of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. Webb Pennie were dinner guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lewis. The Holmans were en route to Pocatello to spend Christmas.

Catholic Children's Christmas Party Held

Mrs. Victor Haburchak and Mrs. Rudy Marostica were in charge of a Christmas party given last Sunday evening for all Catholic children in St. Hubert's parish. The evening was spent playing bingo and ring toss and other games and carols were sung. Bags of candy and oranges were given to the children.

MIA Group Has Program, Dance; Goes Caroling

Members of the Nyssa second ward MIA had their Christmas party Wednesday evening. A program, under the direction of Karma Kesler, Vela Dee Poulsen and Janice Williams was first on the agenda for the evening. The group went caroling and returned to the recreation hall for a dance and hot chocolate and cookie refreshments.

Nursery Group Has Christmas Party

Members of Mother Goose Activity Land, a kindergarten and nursery had their Christmas party and dance Thursday morning. Twenty guests attended the festive affair. The morning was spent singing Christmas carols and participating in dramatizations and dancing.

Directors, Mrs. Dorothea Lewis and Mrs. Hortence Zobell presented each guest with favors and a gift and refreshments were served.

Arrive From Denver

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Saunders and Steven arrived by plane Thursday to spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Flinders and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Saunders in Vale. Mr. Saunders returned home Monday and Mrs. Saunders and Steven will visit here this week.

Guests Of Acaiturris

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Merritt of Burley were guests in Nyssa Christmas day of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Acaiturris.

Health, Happiness, Prosperity...

Our best way of wishing you a Happy New Year is to assure you of continued high quality Sunshine products during 1955 and in the years to come.

Farmer's Cooperative Creamery

With Ringing GOOD CHEER!

As the bells chime out another year, we want to wish our many friends and customers the happiest of New Years! May you and your loved ones enjoy the blessings of peace throughout the year.

Health
Happiness
TO EVERYONE!

from
Your Complete
Food Store

WILSON'S Super Market