Letter Written To General Public

A letter to the editor in last week's Journal, written by the Parma chief of police, was directed to the general public to arouse interest in cutting down on traffic accidents. It was not, as was assumed by two Nyssans, directed to the Gate City Journal editor personally, since the letter appeared in other weekly newspapers in the Snake river valley. The "inquirers" admitted not having read the letter in its entirety, but had "scanned" the item and "jumped to conclusions."

Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrom were Christmas eve guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ostrom and guests for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Boe in Boise.

Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Sherwood and sons left for their home in Detroit, Mich., Tuesday morning after spending ten days with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Sherwood.
