Members Attend Nyssa Extension Club Meet

A meeting of the Nyssa Home Extension club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. E. Collins. Mrs. Harold Wilson reported on "What to look for when choosing a shirt or in buying a pattern, in regards to the individual type or build."

A sanitation warning was issued to members attending to watch for rats, which are known to be rather close to the Nyssa area. If the condition is reported early enough, total extermination can be carried out.

It was also reported at the meeting, that women whose families were having colds, should use two tablespoons of Purex in dish water, to prevent spreading of the infection.
