A wedding ceremony at 4 o'clock Sunday, Jan. 9, in the Apple Valley Methodist church united Miss Betty Boston and Estes (Bud) Bolton. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold Nye, of the Caldwell Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boston of Parma are parents of the bride and Mrs. Edna Bolton of Kelso, Wash., is mother of the bridegroom.

Baskets of pink and white snap dragons and tiered candelabra decorated the church. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Ted Crosby and Dick Nye sang. They were accompanied by Mrs. Harold Nye, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white strapless ballerina length wedding gown of chantilly lace and net over satin. She wore a lace bolero and a fingertip veil with a tiered edge in pearls and sequins. She carried red roses on a white Bible.

Miss Joanne Boston, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a ballerina length gown of blue net and a red rosebud corsage. Diane Rogers, cousin of the bride, was candlelighter. She wore a rose net ballerina length gown and a white carnation corsage. Raymond Diebert was best man. Ushers were Dick Harris and Ted Crosby. Mrs. Boston, mother of the bride wore a pale blue silk afternoon dress with a carnation corsage. Mrs. Bolton wore a black suit and a pink carnation corsage.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church basement. Assisting were Mrs. Ralph Rogers of Nampa and Mrs. Edwin Brumbaugh, aunts of the bride, who poured the punch and coffee; Mrs. Earl Killian of Parma, who cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Sterling Swanson, Miss Eudora Higgins and Miss Evelyn Ingie, who had charge of the gift tables.

The bride graduated from Parma high school in 1952. The groom attended schools in Kelso, and is now serving with the United States Air Force.

The new Mrs. Bolton chose for her travel costume, a navy suit with red accessories. They will live in Mountain Home. Out-of-town guests for the wedding and reception included Mrs. Edna Bolton and Mrs. Charles Hubbard of Kelso, Wash., Mrs. Anna Boston of Napa, Calif., Mrs. Jennie Boston and family of Ontario, Miss Wanda Scott of Great Lakes, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brumbaugh and Roger and Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Jackson of Nyssa.

Parent's Progress

"Parent's Progress" met for a morning coffee at the home of Mrs. Wayne Chesnut last Friday. Twelve guests were present and formed the nucleus for future meetings. The name of the group was chosen as a suitable one as far as the purpose of such an organization. The women hope to progress into the year and into such topic discussions as will best work out answers to questions that parents may have concerning their children at school, on the playground, in relation to their studies, opportunities available at school and so forth.

A short discussion on school ground fights in the lower grades and its affect on the children's attitude at home was held.

Mrs. Josephine Rigney was the guest counselor and offered to assist future groups in finding material for other discussions. Mrs. Gene Grasty will keep a current file of helpful booklets and articles available to the group as a means of finding a positive course of action. Mrs. Dwight Mason was appointed chairman of the group and is in charge of getting members to carry out the meetings throughout the year. Suggestions for topics, and information of out of town guests visiting the school will be available from her.

Guests present for the first discussion were the Mesdames George Rush, Richard Forbess, Leslie Ballantyne, Walter McPartland, J. W. Rigney, Darwin Jensen, Gene Grasty, Hal Henigson, Rolland Laurence, Dale Bingman, Gene Stunz, Neil Petterson, and Wayne Chesnut.

New Topping For Apple Pie

How can so much goodness be packed in one pie? The answer is two-fold—canned apple slices make a top quality filling, and the gingersnap crumbs add zestful flavor.

Try the crumb topping on other fruit pies, too. On those made of canned sliced peaches and apricot halves, you'll find it especially enticing. And, a new version of pumpkin pie is one with the ginger crumb topping added during the last 15 minutes of baking.

Ginger Crumb Apple Pie

1/2 cup granulated sugar	1/2 cup brown sugar,
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon	firmly packed
1 can (1 lb. 1 oz.)	1 cup gingersnap crumbs
sliced apples	2 tablespoons butter, or
Pastry	margarine

Mix granulated sugar and cinnamon with apples and put in an unbaked 8-inch pastry lined pan. Combine brown sugar and crumbs; add butter, using a fork to blend until the mixture resembles cornmeal. Sprinkle over apples. Bake in a hot oven (425° F.) about 30 minutes. Makes one 8-inch pie.
