"Faith in the Future"

The bronze horsewoman, high on a marble-faced pedestal, is a new landmark at the East River Headquarters in New York of the United Nations. The statue named "Mir" (Peace) is a gift from the Government of Yugoslavia to the United Nations. In unveiling the gift, Ambassador Joza Brilej, Yugoslavia's Permanent Representative to U.N., said that the gift symbolized his countrymen's devotion to the U.N. Charter and their faith in the future of the Organization. The above view was taken looking westward from the United Nations gardens. In the right background New York's famous Chrysler skyscraper can be seen.
