

Nyssans Attend Jaycee Meeting Sunday, Coos Bay

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jacques and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bybee returned Sunday after spending three days in Coos Bay, where they attended the spring board meeting of the Oregon Junior chamber of commerce. There were 360 delegates attending.

Friday night, a mixer and dance was attended and meetings and forums were on Saturday's and Sunday's agenda. Saturday evening, a banquet was attended by 400 guests. Ira Kaye, of San Pedro, Calif., national vice president of the Junior chamber of commerce, was the principal speaker of the evening. Dancing followed the dinner.

Bill Stevens of Pendleton, vice president of district 5, which includes clubs between Nyssa and Pendleton reported activities in his district. He reported that the Nyssa group was one of the top clubs in his district in carrying out projects and promotions outlined by the National Jaycee program. Nyssa had 30 projects.

Plans were made for the state convention at Bend, May 13, 14 and 15.

Bill Stevens and Bob Paulson of Baker, state policy chairman, and Wayne Wolf, Baker JC president will be in Nyssa March 15 to visit the meeting. It was also announced that Jack Lively, state president of Springfield, will visit the Nyssa JC meeting April 5.

Mrs. Jaques and Mrs. Bybee attended a luncheon and fashion show on Saturday for wives of delegates.

Primary Has Social

A primary Valentine party was held recently at the Nyssa LDS first ward chapel. Ninety-five children were guests for an afternoon of dancing.

Oranges made into Valentine girls with lace hats and heart mouths were given to the children.

The afternoon entertainment was conducted by Mrs. Max Urry, primary counselor.

(Too late for last week.)

The PTA meeting was held Feb. 17 at the Apple Valley school gym. A short business meeting was held before the program.

Mrs. Orley Smith, Mrs. Waldo Smalley, Mrs. Jack Moran, Mrs. Albert Meiers and Mrs. Ted Dick will serve on the nominating committee for the nomination of officers for next year. The regular election of officers will be held at the next PTA meeting in March.

The program consisted of the school band playing two numbers followed by Dr. Roscoe Kellogg who performed several magic tricks. This is the 58th anniversary of the founding of the PTA and the community past presidents were honored.

Apple Valley organized in 1946 with Mrs. Dwight Seward as first president. She served the school term of 1946-47. Mrs. Charles Lyle served part of 1947-48. She moved out of the community in the spring and Mrs. Waldo Smalley finished out the term. Mrs. Roy Pilcher served in 1948-49.

Dr. Roscoe Kellogg 1949-50, and Mrs. Raymond Arnold 1950-51.

Mrs. Orley Smith served two terms 1951-52 and 1952-53. Grace Butcher was president for the term of 1953-54 and the current president is Mrs. Dwight Seward.

A PTA was formed in 1924 with Mrs. Ella Stephens as president. The organization was discontinued a year later.

Carl Gotsch showed several slides which were taken while on a trip to Germany last year. There were pictures of famous old castles and farm villages. The PTA and officers wish to thank Mr. Gotsch for showing and explaining the pictures. They also wish to thank Leo Thompson who decorated the cake. PTA 58th anniversary was written on the top in Valentine colors. Refreshments were served in the school lunch room.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boston and Mrs. Anna Boston visited Mr. and Mrs. Bud Boston in Mountain Home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Johnson and Jimmy of Parma were Sunday evening dinner guests at the Orley Smith home.

The WSCS ladies served lunch at the Charles Burris farm sale Feb. 19.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank those who sent letters, cards and gifts to the Adrian Lion's club; the Nyssa Methodist church and WSCS; to those who donated blood and to anyone who helped in any way towards making our trip to the hospital in the East possible.
